Former Romulus man named WCISD head

New superintendent of the Wayne County Intermediate School District Dr. William Simmons foretold Friday the possibility of statewide systems of education evolving from court actions.

He cautioned that statewide systems could evolve from statewide funding which, if not carefully monitored, "could threaten the autonomy of the local school districts."

Simmons termed the concept of a statewide school system "a fearsome alternative."

Building not owned by parks

A condemned building reportedly used by four young men in the preparation and packaging marijuana is not owned by the Huron - Clinton Metropolitan Park Authority, according to George H. Giblin, park superintendent at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park.

The deserted building, in which the four men were arrested June 9 by members of the Huron Township Police Department, was reported by Police Chief Christopher Maciolek as being on property owned by the park authority.

The four men, arraigned before 17th District Court Judge Frank Brang of Redford at the time of their arrest, were turned over the 34th District Court in Romulus for further court proceedings.

Chief Maciolek reported that he and his men found the defendants allegedly preparing "marijuana" for packaging and that the "marijuana" was strung on a clothes line drying.

"It had been harvested at a nearby area," Maciolek said. He added that he had contacted authorities at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park to make arrangements to destroy the growing marijuana.

Romulus alters four precincts

By HENRY CANTIN

Reapportionment of Michigan's legislative districts to meet population shifts and increases has resulted in four voting precinct boundary changes in the City of Romulus.

The boundary changes involve precincts one, five, seven and 11, all of which are located in the west central part of the city.

The state's reapportionment has created the new 22nd District, includes part of Romulus, the city of Belleville and Van Buren Township—all of which was previously in the 38th District—and Ypsilanti city and township.

Romulus precinct boundary changes involve approximately 4,000 to 5,000 residents.

The new seventh precinct has about 1,100 residents and is now located at the southwest end of the city.

Notices will be sent to all registered voters that will be affected by the precinct split during the week of June 26, Mrs. Deanna Lovenduski, deputy clerk, announced Monday.

The polling place for the new precinct seventh will be Mt. Pleasant Elementary School, 39000 Superior St.

Any resident seeking additional information may call the clerk's office in the Romulus Municipal Building, 11111 S. Wayne Rd. A map showing the areas covered by the precinct split is printed on Page 12A.

Democratic candidates seeking to represent Michigan's new district in the August primary election are Royce E. Smith, four-term mayor of the City of Belleville; and Gary M. Owen, an Ypsilanti Township trustee.

The Republican candidate is State Rep. Roy Smith, seeking re-election to this fourth term.

Mahalak, 3 others eye seat

Voters in the 38th Michigan legislative district will choose between three Democratic and one Republican in the Aug. 8 primary election.

Seeking re-election to his fifth term in the House of Representatives is Edward E. Mahalak of Romulus. Opposing him on the Democratic ticket are Nancy A. Chaney of Taylor and Elmer Parraghi, former Sumpter Township supervisor.

The Republican candidate is Joanne B. Elliott of Flat Rock.

Four compete for post

Three Democrats and one Republican will compete to represent the 26th District on the Wayne County Board of Commissioners. Two Democrats who had filed for the office have withdrawn their candidacies.

The Democrats seeking election are incumbent John N. Sabo Jr. of Taylor, Robert D. Plank of Romulus, Bronislaus Brewniak of Taylor, Mitchell Moran of Taylor and Mrs. Mary Washburn also of Taylor.

Democrats Edmund Bizek Sr., a former member of the old Wayne County Board of Supervisors, and Charles J. Dick Jr., both of Romulus, have withdrawn from the race.

The lone Republican running for the office is Bruce William Lofback of Taylor.

LIBRARY GETS PAINTINGS—The Romulus Literary Club has donated to the Romulus Public Library two paintings which will hang in the lounge area of the library. Miss Diane Covert (left), librarian, received the two paintings from Mrs. Betty Baum

Lubinski enters race for U.S. House seat

Frank E. Lubinski, member of the city council in Dearborn Heights, yesterday announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for representative from the 15th Congressional District.

Lubinski, 44, took a clap at incumbent William D. Ford in announcing his candidacy for the seat now held by Ford. "Now is the time to cast aside the old leadership — the no leadership — of inaction, despair and neglect for the challenging new leadership which I am uniquely qualified to give."

An insurance executive who was elected to the Dearborn Heights council three years ago, Lubinski called busing and taxation the two key issues in the campaign.

Lubinski strongly deplored the June 14 ruling by Federal Judge Stephen Roth calling for "tri-county integration", which, says Lubinski, would mean the "federal busing of your family and mine to schools deep in the bowels of Detroit, Pontiac and Mt. Clemens."

He added that the moratorium on busing means "no busing until after the election" and noted that Ford endorsed the higher education bill which contains the moratorium amendment.

Lubinski, father of four, said that one of the main reasons for his running is his "grave concern for preserving the American home — your home and my home, your family and my family, America's future, our children."

In an appeal to the "forgotten voters of the 15th district", Lubinski called on all "young and old, working and retired to give me your hand and your help."

During a question and answer session following his announcement, Lubinski, a conservative Democrat, said he did not want to be called a politician, but rather "an elected concerned citizen."

Lubinski called for an end to deficit spending on the federal level. "Deficit spending doesn't go," he said. "The government can't live within its budget and is going hog wild on spending and yet the individual taxpayer is told he must live within his income. That's detestable."

Lubinski said that his biggest hurdle in overcoming the incumbent will be what he called "muddling". "When politicians can't face an issue squarely, they resort to gutter politics that they all know so well."

Lubinski, a resident of Dearborn Heights, is a graduate of St. Joseph's Commercial College and also attended Michigan State University and Ford Management Training Programs. He is the founder and owner of the LU-BIN-SKI Insurance Agency and is a former tradesman and member of UAW Local 700.

A veteran of World War II, Lubinski is a member of St. Anselm's Roman Catholic Church, Knights of Columbus, Chamber of Commerce, Elks, Polish Legion of American Veterans, Polish National Alliance, American Legion and the National Rifle Association.

He was a member of the Fairlane Parent-Teacher Organization and is a former little league and hockey manager and coach.

Along with his council duties, Lubinski is committee chairman of city services in Dearborn Heights and is also a member of the Depository of City Funds and City Employee Programs.

Sen. Faust withdraws

State Sen. William Faust will not seek to unseat Congressman William D. Ford in the Aug. 8 primary election.

Faust (D-Westland) withdrew his name from the ballot prior to the 4 p.m. deadline last Friday. He will instead serve out his state senatorial term which expires in 1974.

Also withdrawing was Louis J. Gubuloff of Wayne who had filed petitions earlier in the 27th district county commissioner's race.

Wayne City Councilman Paul Lada has announced he will run for the 27th District County Commissioner nomination in the August primary.

The 27th District encompasses Wayne, Canton Township, Plymouth, Van Buren and Sumpter townships.

Lada has been a councilman for six years, serving as mayor pro-tem for two. He resides at 34550 Chestnut with his wife, Simonne, and their nine children.

A resident of the city for 15 years, Lada has been employed with the Wayne Community Federal Credit Union for six years and previously to that, with Minnesota Mutual for 17 years.

Mrs. Cullin eyes post as Van Buren clerk

Mrs. Patricia Cullin of 13375 Lenmore Rd., a Van Buren Township trustee, has filed as a Republican for township clerk in the Aug. 8 primary election.

Formerly a substitute teacher in the Van Buren Public School District, Mrs. Cullin and her husband, Cameron, are the parents of four children.

Mrs. Cullin's educational background includes attendance at Michigan State University, Henry Ford

Mahalak eyes fifth as state representative

State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak has announced he will seek re-election this fall. Now completing his fourth term in Lansing, Mahalak has represented the 38th district since it was created in 1964.

Commenting on his candidacy, Mahalak cited his record during his terms in the legislature as a representative from the 38th District. He represents part of the Wayne County and more than half of Monroe County.

Mahalak said under a recent court ordered appointment based on the 1970 census, the following areas have been added to the 38th District: Part of the City of Taylor; part of the City of Wayne; part of the Township of Frenchtown; and all of the Township of Whiteford.

While expressing disappointment of losing the Township of Van Buren, City of Belleville, Township of Berlin, Village of Estrabach, part of the City of Milan and part of the City of Romulus, he stated that if called upon by residents of these communities, he would still help them when requested.

Mahalak stated he has made many friends and cannot stop helping them just because the court has ordered changes in the make-up of the district.

In his statement announcing his candidacy, Mahalak said he would bring to the people of the 38th District his record of supporting legislation of interest and benefit to his legislative district. Mahalak added he hopes to continue the faith of the people in the Michigan legislative process by urging the election of legislators dedicated in good government and the needs of their constituents in making good laws, not extra dollars. Mahalak served as a member of the legislature during the 1965-72 years and was one of the leaders in the many constructive measures adopted during these sessions.

During his terms in office he has served twice as chairman of the Military and Veterans Affairs, Committee, 1965-66; 1969-70; 1971-72, and was vice-chairman during the 1967-68 session. He also served on the following committees: judiciary, drainage, state capitol and public buildings, state prisons, public safety, public utilities, consumers and agriculture, roads and bridges and state affairs.

He points with pride as prime sponsor of many enacted bills to law and as a legislator he was directly instrumental in securing the adoption of legislation benefiting the citizens of his district and the state of Michigan.

He was born and raised in Wayne County. Mahalak and his wife live at 10154 Miriam St., Romulus, with their daughter, Denise. He also has a son, Gregory, and a daughter-in-law, Paulette.

He served in the Air Force in Europe during World War II. He started his political service as a justice of the peace in Romulus Township, being elected in 1954 and serving for 10 years.

He is a member of the St. Aloysius Church in Romulus, Ushers Club, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 9568; Dads Club 209; Polish Legion of American Veterans Post 7; and the Romulus Kiwanis Club.

Mrs. Jane L. Wyman, 11811 Sunset Lane, Belleville, has been appointed to the Board of Canvassers by the Van Buren Township Board.

Mrs. Wyman, a Republican, replaces Mrs. Iva Dahl, 46795 Denton Rd., Belleville, who resigned because of ill health.

The other members of the board are Mrs. Mary Lochrie, 1125 E. Huron River Dr., Belleville, Republican; Mrs. Barbara Miller, 45311 Harmony Lane, and Mrs. Gabrielle Muschl, 47195 Ayres, both Belleville Democrats.

PAUL LADA

Prior to moving to Wayne, Lada lived in Warren and served on the Warren Fitzgerald Board of Education.

Active in the 15th District Democratic organization, he is a member of its executive

"I take pride in the fact that all the while I was a member of the school board, I never missed a meeting, and I've only missed part of a Wayne City Council meeting," Lada said.

"I think that when you decide you're going to get involved, you have a responsibility to be there."

PATRICIA CULLIN

Grace Carollo has convinced a lot of people that 4 1/2% can be better than 5%.

They all called her at Person-to-Person with the same checking and savings problem. Happy with their regular 5% passbook at one place, but unhappy to be paying around $30 a year in checking charges somewhere else. Could they do any better? Grace's answer was Check Free & Earn—an exclusive service of Bank of the Commonwealth. She explained how a minimum of $500 in Bank One's 4 1/2% regular passbook, while earning them about $2.50 less interest per year than at 5%, would qualify them for a free checking account. So they could actually stop spending that $30 on checking every year. That kind of arithmetic made a lot of sense. If your savings account isn't earning you free checking, call Person-to-Person at 965-8800 and ask about Check Free & Earn. Or just stop by any one of our 57 offices. We hate to see people lose money.

Reminiscing about the old Texas School

By ROBERT L. MCCONEGHY Superintendent of Romulus Schools

One year there were more than 90 (now 635) children enrolled in the one room. However all of these children did not come at one time. The younger ones came in the fall and springtime while the older ones attended during the winter months. The ages ranged from three to twenty-four years.

The teacher wore a coat with long tails and was trimmed with buttons. He wore knee trousers with buckles at the knees. His white waist and stiff ruffles in front and a stiff collar made him keep his head high. His clothes would look very queer today.

The colonial children dressed very differently, too. The girls wore long dresses, a soft kerchief, a cape, and shoes with buckles. The boys wore a short coat, short trousers with buckles at the knees. In cold weather they wore capes, too.

One queer thing about their schools was that everyone studied out loud. We don't do that.

Mr. Dickelman was about the age of his little son, Charles

(now in the first grade) when Mr. Prouty was in the eighth grade. By the way, Mr. Prouty took that grade over for three years in hopes that he would learn a little more - since he couldn't go on to any high school at the time.

Mr. Dickelman's father used to be on the Texas School Board, too, just as Mr. Dickelman has been for many years. Another member of our present board is Mr. Bowers. His wife was the first eighth grader from Texas School to graduate from Romulus High School. She became a school teacher later.

Mr. Prouty let us look at a keepsake of his Uncle Daniel C. Prouty. It was a mottled red, white and blue composition book used as a record ledger. It was sold by E.T. Webb, druggist and book-seller, one door South Biddle House, Wyandotte, Michigan, as a little label told us.

It contained an index of pages of money received, money paid out, Library money received and balances of account. The date was 1872. Some interesting items were:

Lack of action puts 3.9 tax into 2nd year

Michigan's 3.9 per cent income tax will start its second year on the lawbooks Aug. 1 just as though nothing happened.

And nothing did.

Gov. William G. Milliken signed the extension bill June 21 because the state would have gone broke without the extra $350 million it pours into the state treasury.

The whole business was a classic irony and it raised the echo of Milliken's own words fretting about the cynicism of the citizen towards government and politicians.

Milliken has said the way to restore public confidence is for politicians to keep their promises or decline to make those they know they cannot keep.

Michigan's original income tax was 2.6 per cent, enacted during the days of former Gov. George Romney as a means to extricate the state from another of its biennial crisis.

There had been a twisting of arms and a gnashing of teeth but the deed was done and government survived.

But just as sure as the flowers bloom in May and the sun rises in the east, so also there arrived another crisis and an increase in the income tax was ordained.

This time, however, there was trouble. Legislators who had gone that route before to vote for higher taxes demanded some break for the taxpayers as the price for their vote on the increase.

So they insisted that a clause be inserted into the bill allowing the increase to expire Aug. 1, 1972, if a property tax relief proposal had not been placed on the ballot by the legislature.

There ensued months of negotiation on just what form it would take. Milliken and legislators bargained and labored and brought fourth a compromise property tax plan.

It was passed by the House, containing Milliken's original idea of eliminating the property tax as a primary source of school operations money and a graduated income tax favored by Democrats.

Senate Republicans blocked the proposal and they and others accused Milliken of a sell-out to Democrats. It was dead as a legislative issue and all efforts to bring it back to life failed.

Thus legislators had not kept their promise to allow the people to vote on a tax relief package. But a financial crisis had developed and the Senate had already passed the income tax increase extension.

Rep. George Montgomery, (D-Detroit), the old gray fox of the House taxation committee, said he would not let the tax extension bill out of committee until the Senate passed a property tax proposal.

Even Montgomery couldn't withstand the pressure to keep the state solvent. The income tax extension bill came out on the floor, it was passed and Milliken signed it into law.

Now Milliken says there will probably have to be another increase if the state must pick up the check for buses and other expenses if the order of Federal Judge Stephen J. Roth to bus school children in the Detroit metropolitan area is implemented.

So Milliken was right about the cynicism and distrust of the people toward government and politicians when he first made his diagnosis two years ago.

But nothing that has happened since has changed anything. In fact, the only things that have happened justify the cynicism and distrust.

House cracks down on business practices

Although the emphasis has been on appropriations bills, the House in the last week has acted on a number of other pieces of legislation to crack down on unfair and unethical business practices.

The Consumer Protection Bill, now under consideration in the Senate, would make unfair, deceptive or unconscionable trade practices illegal. By unconscionable we mean taking advantage of the inability of a consumer reasonably to protect his interests by reason of any disability, illiteracy or inability to understand the language of an agreement.

that are almost valueless, health spas that make claims they cannot deliver, self-improvement courses that do not produce promised results and kickbacks demanded by mobile home park owners.

These are just a few examples. There are many others which each year bilk countless Michigan citizens.

This legislation would fill a void in Michigan's consumer protection statutes. The laws we have now do not adequately deal with the problems caused by deceptive and unfair business practices.

The consumer who has been cheated has little, if any recourse. There are some areas of fraudulent and misleading trade practices in which the office of the attorney general and other law enforcement agencies are virtually powerless to act. Hopefully, the bill passed by the House would correct this situation.

The bill would authorize the attorney general to obtain injunctions against companies and firms engaging in unfair, deceptive or unconscionable practices, with subpoena powers to examine records and take testimony on complaints of such practices.

The courts would be able to issue permanent injunctions, order restitution and award compensation to injured persons. Penalties under the proposal would range from a $1,000 civil penalty to as much as $10,000.

Let July 4 be reminder: independence 196 years old

This July Fourth will mark 196 years since the initial Independence Day in 1776 when our forefathers adopted the Declaration of Independence and launched the United States of America as a free and independent nation.

This is not long in the history of nations. Yet, many of us seem already to have forgotten some of the basic tenets upon which our country is based.

We hear those who demand their rights without bothering to exercise responsibility and ask for the fruits of labor without working and honor without perseverance and a willingness to stand on principle. It is time that a respected salute to a passing U.S. Flag came back in style.

Let July 4, 1972 serve as a reminder to each of us that the ideals of freedom, liberty and justice, upon which this nation was founded, are not to be taken lightly.

They remain now, as always, the pillars of our strength. But, they are only as strong as they are secure in our hearts.

Romulus Library progress reported

By DIANE COVERT
Romulus Librarian

Two major additions have been made at the library.

First, we have added a fulltime library aid under Emergency Employment Act (E.E.A.). This has greatly relieved pressure on the rest of the staff and allowed increased service to the patrons.

Because we have this additional staff member, we have begun opening the library at 10 a.m. instead of at noon, Monday through Thursday. We felt that we could provide better service and gain new patrons by making our hours more nearly the same as those of the city hall.

The pre-school story hour session began Feb. 1, and continued for eight weeks. We had two groups a week with a total attendance of 380 children. The session ended with the Easter party.

A film, a story and the Easter bunny (a volunteer high school student) kept the children entertained. Eighty-seven children and adults attended the party. The Easter bunny had a small basket for each child.

Also, because of our new staff member, we were able to initiate regular Saturday childrens' programs. There was a magician, a songfest, African folk songs and stories, songs and stories from around the world, movies, crafts and a special 'Michigan Week' program.

As an experiment this spring, we tried a family movie night. The film chosen was an old Laurel and Hardy classic. Young people and adults were welcome, and 35 people attended.

The staff felt that it was enough of a success to be continued on a regular basis in the fall and several Laurel and Hardy films and other classics have been scheduled.

Another new project has been the Bible News, a library newspaper featuring childrens' writing, book reviews, news of library programs and a game or puzzle.

The first issue came out in April and the second issue will be out soon. There were 300 copies printed, which were placed in fourth to sixth grade classrooms in Romulus.

The library has a new pamphlet displayer. We are trying to encourage patrons to notice and use the pamphlet file by placing interesting and unusual information where it will catch people's attention.

We featured a display of Senior Citizens' handicraft and now are displaying the work of a local artist. The library is also featuring a paperback book display called "Red, White, Black, Brown and Yellow: minorities in America."

The Romulus Literary Club has donated two paintings to the library to make the lounge area a much more appealing place.

The library has recently acquired a collection of matted prints by black artists. They will be displayed in the library first and then circulated to patrons for home display, as the beginning of a print collection.

We have continued to have classes visit the library, including recently some of the adult education classes.

The library did not receive the grant for a bookmobile this summer, but a film festival and summer reading club are planned for July and August at the library. There will be another preschool story hour session.

The House also has approved a bill to require that Detroit appointive officials live in the city.

Our readers write

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Daily Eagle and Associated Newspapers, Inc. welcome letters from our readers. Letters must include signature - with names also typed or printed legibly - and address, which will be withheld upon request, and telephone number for our own use if necessary. If group designation is requested in signature, list of members names, addresses and telephone numbers must be included. Letters should be typed double-spaced or written clearly and should not exceed 300 words. All are subject to condensation.

To the editor:

On Tuesday, June 13, we attended a board meeting at the Van Buren township hall requesting action from the board to place the lake issue on the August ballot for reconsideration in light of the false information distributed just prior to the election.

It was one of many we have attended in the past two years. The same feelings of despair and revulsion persist after each one.

With citizens in attendance and petitions totaling over 700 names, Erma Payne, Fred Birk and Joe Hogan persisted in voting no, thereby prohibiting any action by the board.

Mr. Hogan went on record saying the report is basically true. This parallels previous actions (by the same representatives of the people) on efforts made by our local government for improvements in our community.

It is our understanding that the supervisor, when elected to office, has the option of appointing his legal staff. This has been done in previous administrations when requested. Not so with this term of office. Each time the issue has been presented, it has been voted down 4-2 with Jerry Maton joining the dissenters.

When the entire community became enraged at the prospect of wall to wall airport and it became apparent that our attorneys were in conflict with the best interests of Van Buren Township residents (the senior member of the firm is head of Wayne County Road Commission), again these board members chose to ignore the obvious desire of the citizens and refused to permit another firm to be appointed.

They did agree, however, to permit us to hire attorneys to contest the airport construction. This could, of course, prove futile since the firm of Berry, Hopson, Francis and Mack has access to all records and plans.

How is this possible? It is possible because when we elect responsible people, we allow their hands to be tied. We have an uninformed or misinformed citizenry, people who are too busy, too tired, too sick and some who just don't care, not to mention special interest groups always ready to spread false information to obtain a goal.

Many voters have never seen our local government in action and never will. That is why members of the board can ignore with a smirk the desires of the few dozen or few hundred people!

They are very aware that most of the voters do not know and few make an effort to find out. If a couple of hundred become enraged, they are only a minute portion of the voters and will have little or no effect on the outcome of elections. They are smug. We are complacent!

Why do we feel that we can't do anything about existing conditions? If government is of the people, by the people and for the people, the indication is that we are the boss. Being the boss carries responsibilities. It entails hard work, sacrifice and active participation.

Most of us do not wish to be involved and prefer that someone else shoulder the burden, but if we are ever to have responsible government, we must declare our position on all issues as we see them and accept the responsibility for our actions and insist that our representatives follow our instructions or remove them from office.

We must elect representatives who are competent and qualified and not because they need a job.

"We believe letters to the editor are frequently ineffective because they are read primarily by those people who are interested and involved already. However, it appears to be our only recourse.

We would like to encourage all readers of this letter to discuss it with those who might otherwise be uninformed. These are facts that are available to anyone who wants to take the time to check them.

Let us show that we have the ability, ambition, perseverance and resources to intelligently direct our officials and then do so. Then we may have responsible representation.

If we are unwilling to do this, we should quit crying about taxes, lack of facilities and bad government. Like charity, government begins at home.

Anderson-Moore vows exchanged June 17

The First Baptist Church of Ypsilanti was the scene of the June 17 wedding of Catherine Moore and Eric Anderson. The two o'clock nuptials were read by Ralph Thompson.

Catherine is the daughter of former Bellevillites, Mrs. and Mrs. Jasper L. Moore of 30768 Lincolnshire E., Beverly Hills, Birmingham. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Samuel H. Robbe of E. Huron River Drive, Belleville, and Mrs. George W. Moore of Hannan Road, Romulus. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Anderson of 33302 King's Lane Court, Farmington.

FOR HER WEDDING day, the bride donned a gown of white antique satin and lace embellished with seed pearls. Darcy Lenz was asked to be made of honor and the bride's sister, Emily, was bridesmaid. Their frocks were in shades of orange and yellow.

Best man was Rudy Engholm and groomsmen were John Andelson. Ushers were the bride's brother, Robbe J. Moore, and Bruce Haviland.

Following the ceremony a reception for some 120 guests was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The newlyweds later departed for a honeymoon in the Smokey Mountains and the Atlantic Coast. On their return they will reside in Ann Arbor.

REV. AND MRS. SANFORD E. COOK

Cooks honored on anniversary

A party marking the 30th wedding anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. Sanford E. Cook of 47000 Lauren Court, Belleville, was held June 13. The Sanford E. Cooks, II, hosted the celebration on the lawn of their Alden Drive home with Ronald D. Cook and Regina Cook as co-hosts.

The anniversary ceremony, at which the couple renewed their marriage vows, was performed by the Rev. Edgar Cook, a brother. For the occasion, Mrs. Cook carried a white mother of pearl Bible topped with a white orchid and baby's breath. The Bible was purchased during a trip to the Holyland five years ago when the Cooks were observing their silver anniversary.

The song, "Living for Jesus", which had been sung at their wedding 30 years prior, was sung by Mrs. Cook's sister, Mrs. Ruth Thum, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Glendora Cook.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served featuring a three-tiered pink and white wedding cake made by Mrs. Glendora Cook.

Among those attending the celebration were Rev. Cook's brother and sisters, Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Cook of Plymouth; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ojala of Allen Park; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eldridge of Romulus.

Plastics recycled

Contrary to popular belief, thermoplastics—the major category for all plastics—can be recycled. At the present, there is a San Diego dairy making use of ground up polyethylene milk bottles to produce a useful drainage pipe and a New York plastic container manufacturer who is making hexagon-styled wine racks (for retail sale) from a blend of waste polystyrene beverage cups plus virgin raw materials.

MRS. PIERRE LEMIEUX

Belleville girl wed in Hawaii

A Hawaiian wedding June 10 at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Honolulu united Cynthia Dwornik of Belleville, daughter of the Andrew Dworniks of 44780 Robson Road, and Pierre Lemieux of Jerome, son of the Robert Yerebeks of 960 Terrace View Court.

The 12 noon nuptials were read by Father Alencastre before an altar graced with yellow fugi mums and pomps. Traditional Island music was provided by the church choir.

Cynthia exchanged double ring vows in a toe-touching gown of white crepe and lace, the crepe bodice being designed with a scoop neckline and above-elbow sleeves and the skirt of crepe overlaid with lace.

A delicate tiara of pearls and crystals held her three-quarter veil which was sprinkled with sequins and a bouquet of white carnations centered with a purple orchid completed her bridal finery.

FLYING TO Honolulu to be matron of honor and best man were the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Gloria and David Rochon of Belleville. Mrs. Rochon's gown, a floor-length Hawaiian design, was in royal blue with a sleeveless, V-neck bodice and slim print skirt.

Her husband and the bridegroom were dressed alike in navy blue belted trousers and white Hawaiian shirts trimmed in blue. The men also wore orchid leis while Mrs. Rochon added an orchid corsage to her frock.

A dinner reception followed at the revolving La Ronde Restaurant located on the 26th floor of the Ala Moana Building in Honolulu.

The newlyweds will make their home in Honolulu while the bridegroom is serving with the U.S. Navy on board the USS Preble at Pearl Harbor.

The new Mrs. Lemieux was graduated from Belleville High in 1970 and prior to her marriage was employed at the Ben Franklin Store in Belleville. The bridegroom earned his diploma at Garden City High in 1968 prior to enlisting in the Navy.

Lois Jaje weds

St. Ursula's chosen for June 10 wedding

The newly wed Ralph Swalleys motored to Niagara Falls in Canada for a one-week honeymoon following their marriage June 10 at St. Ursula's Catholic Church in Ypsilanti.

Lois Jaje, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jaje of 2042 Bradley, Ypsilanti, became Mrs. Swalley in a five o'clock ceremony read by the Rev. Mitchell J. Bednarski.

For the double ring rite, the bride appeared in a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta, the fitted bodice being styled with a high neckline and long, tapered sleeves. A chapel sweep created back interest on the toe-touching frock.

HER ELBOW-LENGTH veil of silk illusion was caught to a crescent headpiece formed of hand-clipped lace petals and satin bow loops. A cascade of white roses, mini carnations and baby's breath completed her bridal ensemble.

As her cousin's honor attendant, Mrs. Robert (Jeanette) Frost of Belleville donned a blue organdy, floor-length dress designed with long sleeves edged in lace. Lace was also used to outline the bodice on the bodice, the collar, and hemline. The nosegay she held was comprised of carnations, daisies and baby's breath.

Wearing rainbow colored gowns identical to Mrs. Frost's in pink, peach, orchid, yellow, and green, were the quintet of bridesmaids: Connie Swintonowski, the bride's cousin from Carleton; Arleen Taylor of Belleville; Mrs. Jerry (Peggy) Smith of Ypsilanti; Vicki Swalley, the bridegroom's sister; and the junior attendant, Tracie Miller, the bride's niece from Ypsilanti. Their carnation bouquets were designed to match their gowns.

FOUR-YEAR OLD Angela Miller and her brother, Joseph, six, served as flowergirl and ringbearer at their aunt's wedding. They are the children of Mrs. Louise Miller of Ypsilanti.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swalley of 4340 Willard, Belleville, asked his brother, Jerry, to be best man. Two other brothers, John and Bobby; their uncle, Don Swalley of Dearborn Heights; and the bride's cousin, Robert Frost of Belleville; served as ushers with Leroy Vandercook of Garden City, the bridegroom's cousin as junior usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jaje chose an aqua street-length dress to which she pinned her corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother donned an orchid ensemble and corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the P.N.A. Hall, Belleville.

The new Mrs. Swalley was graduated in 1971 from Belleville High School. The bridegroom earned his diploma in 1970 from Wayne Memorial High School is now working for the Ford Motor Company at Ypsilanti.

The evening before the wedding, the Robert Swalleys entertained at the rehearsal dinner at their home on Willard Street.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

Do you remember when sixteen of the best qualified, professional drivers in the country tangled in an accident on the straightaway - within minutes after starting the 500 mile race on Memorial Day at Engineapolis? If these drivers don't have a chance when something goes wrong, what chance do every day drivers have on highways when driving at breakneck speed?

High speed causes blood baths on every holiday and particularly on holiday week ends. Every year we see more victims buried, hopes and lives shattered in sorrowing families all over the country. This shameful execution MUST stop.

Continually, we have pitiful predictions on highway deaths ... Remember this: It isn't always the other fellow who gets it. The predictions CAN INCLUDE YOU! If you KNEW you were doomed to die in traffic, or if you KNEW you were doomed to be the executioner for other traffic victims, what would you do about it? It is a harsh question. It has a simple answer. Why not do it then - and play safe?...

by Diane Martina

•FOR LO, THESE many moons... have we been slipping out after midnight when the last sleepy little face has finally been kissed goodnight for the 10th time and the last word finally written ... to stroll, at our own leisure, down the wide, comfortable aisles of DANNY'S FOODS... where one can shop 24 hours a day for everything and anything we need in the Kitchen ... and a whole lot more!! ONLY LAST WEEK did we discover what Danny's is all about, and why we've felt so much at home there, always it is the very same service Mama enjoyed when she shopped at the Senior Mr. Knopper's store years ago! And when young Danny worked part time at his Father's side in a Chain Store, little did he realize that Dad was putting him on the right path to the future! By age 14, Dan was working in the Family's own Market (could be your 'mom shopped there when ours did) ... and by age 15, his Father was gone and Danny took over full time. His Brother Morton, now Dr. Knopper, helped him get started before going on to Medical School. Today, the Brothers share a building from which Dan supervises his Market Operations ... while Dr. Morton Knopper has Medical Offices on the 1st floor. Sonia Knopper worked at her Husband's side for years ... and their daughter Karen, who taught her how to "check", has grown up in the business! A Family whose life is so interwoven with their business ... that pleasing you at each of their locations is one of the most important things in their lives ... these are the Knoppers', and Danny's Foods! Small wonder the friendly, courteous service takes you back in time ... that the Meals are the "Special" kinds your favorite Butcher used to remember to save just for you ... and he still does, at DANNY'S FOODS! We're going to be telling you more about these people ... but in the meantime, get to know them yourself at any of these locations: 30221 Cherry Hill ... 3031 S. Telegraph, in Dearborn ... 25233 Warren, 1 Block E. of Beech-Daily, in Dearborn Heights. (We'll be looking forward to meeting you there!)

•AND WHILE YOU'RE Shopping, pick up the internationally famous ALTES BEER, along with two other BIG Summer time pleasures: GRAPE MALT DUCK and APPLE MALT DUCK! A personal taste test will immediately provide the reason for this flock of recipes we've received in our "Brew Something Up" Contest. We're going to have to call a half someplace along the line ... but people are having such fun creating these recipes (and we're having such fun testing 'em!) ... that we just don't want to stop!! Entries include Apple-Duck-Fondue, Fisherman's Beer Batter, Grapey Singalong Stew, and a Praline Pie! All of them are simple to prepare ... and simply delicious! We even heard from one daring Bachelor who tried to make an Apple Malt in his blender, using Apple Malt Duck in place of milk ... and diced apples as another ingredient. He added ice for thickening and sweetener and color for effect. It was just great until he miscalculated the amounts. "Help!" read his letter. "What do I do with 7,000 drunken ants??" DON'T send 'em to us, Tony. There's no room in the mailbox, what with all these recipes! Okay, then: ONE more month till the Winner Dinner! If Y-O-U feel like cookin' something up, let us know what you used ... and we may just be dining together by the end of July! Send recipes to: P.O. Box 2482, Livonia (48151). DO IT!

•DON'T PICK IT UP at "the warehouse" ... where it might just be warehouse quality, mass-produced in a hurry according to the number of orders a gimmick promotion may bring in! If you're Furniture Shopping, and if the Furniture you're shopping for is important to you ... you'll want to have the carefully made, beautifully styled, AND fully guaranteed accoutrements of happy living from the place you know and trust ... and at the place that gives you THREE chances to save, without sacrificing quality, by choosing your own Delivery and Service plans! And, at NATIONAL UNCLAIMED FURNITURE SHOWROOMS, the Furnishings you select are the very items you receive! Daily till 9 and Sundays from 12-6, they're pleasing people with everything in the line of Furniture excluding appliances ... and they make it simple for you to find their Showrooms! They're located at 29855 Ford Rd., Garden City, 126 E. 14 Mile (West of Oakland Mall) ... 31795 Groesbeck (M-97) ... and even at 1530 Pinegrove, in Port Huron! HOW can you miss? If you're looking for formal, traditional pieces ... if you're preying impressively proportioned items ... if you're thinking of sturdy country-style gusto ... IF you want to see it ALL ... and if you want to come back 100 times before you decide ... you'll find yourself pleased with both the selection, and the welcome, NO pressure, no foolin', no time to waste! For REAL Furniture value, "go National!"

•IT WAS A "BUSMAN'S" Holiday ... and a "mini-Vacation" ... and a plain old-fashioned delight ... to meet Diana Hungerford, at her Ambassador Flower & Gift Shop, 7342 Middlebelt (at Warren), in Westland! Although we chose a difficult day (she humorously called her show window a "smashing success", as she had suffered her second break-in just that morning), Diana found rather m-a-d-e time to show us everything in this fabulous place, and to answer all our questions. The small front belies the ELEVEN ROOMS inside, each filled with a separate specialty. Nor were we an exception to the rule of personal attention, here. Time is taken to present and display everything to the fullest ... and to give you Total Service in appreciation of your patronage! We'll tell you more about this in detail, in future Columns; particularly about the fantastic Bridal Service, absolutely the best we've heard of, Nationwide! For now, we'll name the specialty of each Room ... and leave you to decide which you'll want to visit first! Accent Lighting, Anniversary Room, Religious Room, Musical Boutiques, Clocks, Jewelry Room, Bar Accessories, Card Room, BRIDAL ROOM, Jewellery Room, TWO Candle Rooms. They deserve a Column apiece, and then some. Go over NOW, and see why ... or watch Shopper's Digest. If we don't find something just for you at "The Ambassador" ... it hasn't been made yet!

Local youths attend seminar

A five-day seminar on how to become better American citizens held on the campus of Ferris State College (June 19-23) attracted 190 junior and senior high school students from rural and urban communities of Wayne County.

Among those attending were three students from the Belleville area — Dennis Lochrie, Scott Stone and Jeffery Sayre.

The Young People's Citizenship Seminar was the eighth annual seminar sponsored by the Michigan Farm Bureau.

The students are selected on the basis of their academic records by the county farm agent.

Our American heritage, principals of Democracy, benefits of the free enterprise system and political activities were areas studied during the seminar.

The students will make reports and presentations to interested service organizations throughout the year.

Directors named to Security board

Thirteen directors were elected to the board of the Southeastern Michigan Holding Company, parent company of Security Bank & Trust, at the shareholders' annual meeting last week.

Named to the board were John W. Blackwell, Arthur E. Chambers, Mrs. Lillian Kemler, William C. McMillan, L.R. Naragon, Lowell L. Peacock, Roy H. Roberts, Thomas R. Stewart, Harry F. Vellmure, Douglas Hayes, Jerry Luptak, Ted H. Marsh and John Hancock.

Mrs. Kemler will fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Clarence Mead, who left to pursue personal interests.

Shareholders, meeting in Southgate June 20, also approved the appointment of Ernst & Ernst as the company's auditors.

Mead had been affiliated with Security Bank and Trust for 48 years, serving as president and chairman of the Board from 1964 to 1971. After his retirement in 1971, he remained a member of the board of the bank and the holding company.

Mrs. Kemler, a Dearborn resident, attended the University of Michigan, majoring in history. She has been closely related to the bank for numerous years. Her late husband, Dr. W.J. Kemler, was a former chairman of the board of the bank.

Douglas Hayes, chairman of the board, reviewed the performance of the Security Bank and Trust, saying that the bank's net operating earnings per share before security gains or losses for the first five months of 1972 were $1.75, up 15.9 percent from $1.51 per share a year ago.

He said that the growth rate of the bank continues to look favorable, but the same rate of improvement in earnings might be difficult to maintain.

He pointed out that the move into the new main office in Southgate would require additional non-recurring expenses. The monetary policy for the last half of this year would probably be less expansionary than it has been for the past 18 months and this could also slow the growth rate.

Hayes concluded that the bank's operating efficiency should improve with the move to the main office and he was optimistic about the organization's continued growth.

PERFORMERS AT BELLEVILLE SHOW — Ron Hink and Bill Peterson cruise past the spectators at last year's Fourth of July water show and fireworks display on Belleville Lake. Last year some 6,000 persons attended the water show and started to watch the fireworks display when the skies opened up with a torrential downpour. Rain isn't forecast for this year, though.

Greektown celebration set for this weekend

No passports will be needed for an excursion to Greece July 1 to 4 in Detroit's Greektown — centered on Monroe Street at Beaubien, downtown.

During the four days of Detroit's fifth ethnic festival of the summer, visitors can dance Greek style in the street to the music of the Rhodinas Band. Or they may enjoy belly dancing, shish-kabob, roasted corn and many other products of Greek origin.

Many Greektown establishments will display wares ranging from Greek tote bags and ponchos to jewelry and statues.

The Greektown festival hours are from 6:30 to 12 p.m.

Saturday and from 12 noon to 11 p.m. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Admission is free. Detroit's Greek community has celebrated its ethnic ties with the Mediterranean each first week of July for many years. Downtown Monroe Street is the traditional site.

Austin speech slated

Richard H. Austin, Michigan secretary of state, will be the principal speaker at the annual "Let Freedom Ring" observances at Greenfield Village July 4. Austin's topic will be "The Goals for '76."

The ceremonies begin at noon against the backdrop of the exact replica of Independence Hall which forms the entrance to the Henry Ford Museum.

Following Austin's address, a new, specially written dramatic presentation brings to life the words and the attitudes of our forebears in those momentous times 197 years ago.

Also participating will be the Marine Corps Color Guard, the Greenfield Village Volunteer Militia with their muzzle loading rifles and the award-winning Wayne Memorial High School Band.

Campanella's debut in 'BEN'

Joseph Campanella makes his motion picture debut in "BEN", the terrifying sequel to "Willard." "BEN" opens today at the Wayne Drive-In and Quo Vadis theatres.

Best known for his role as Brian Darrow on TV's "The Bold Ones," Campanella got the opportunity to prove his courage and boldness in the terror-suspense film which costars him with almost 4,000 rats.

Along with Campanella, "BEN" stars Rosemary Murphy, Lee Harcourt, Montgomers, Meredith Baxter and Arthur O'Connell.

Festival fireworks Friday

More than half a million people are expected to crowd the banks of the Detroit River on Friday for the fireworks show which highlights the Detroit-Windsor International Freedom Festival. The show is scheduled to begin at 9 p.m., Detroit time.

The fireworks displays are under the direction of James Sorgi, a fifth generation pyrotechnician and owner of the American Fireworks Co., in Hudson, Ohio. The team of 28 professional specialists works for two days preparing the show. They load four barges with 25 boxes of mortars braced in 75 tons of sand.

The day of the show, the barges are anchored in place in the Detroit River: one opposite Cobo Hall, another opposite the Veterans Memorial Building and the third opposite Ford Auditorium. The big show's barges are anchored midway between the American and Canadian shores.

Special arrangements include: closing the Detroit River to all traffic between the Ambassador Bridge and the Belle Isle Bridge from 8 to 10 p.m.; traffic control and routing for the thousands of cars which will crowd the downtown area, and clearing of all possible vantage points along the river.

Credits for traffic direction go to the Detroit and Windsor police departments. Also cooperating with fireworks officials are both cities' fire departments, the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

In case of bad weather, the show will be held July 1. The show is sponsored by the J.L. Hudson Co.

"TAKE MY HAND, LOVE" I pleaded with the Waitress. "I'm a stranger in paradise." After a long, 1-0-0-n-g afternoon, THE DANISH INN, at 32305 Grand River, in Farmington, IS truly Paradise! Did the lights seem softer to me than usual? Well, they do each and every time my tired soul needs soothing. Did Mr. Pat play like fields-of-flowers?? Pat ALWAYS makes the people feel young and springy! Outside was fulla weather, because last week had every kind of weather there is. Inside, the climate is smooth and dreamy and filled with starlight. Wilson Mizner once said, "The best way to keep your friends, is not to give them away." But I'm going to take that chance, and tell on Dick & Barb Benisek; They HAVE created an Oasis in this hectic race with what's happening. It's one of the last things I know of that doesn't change. The food is perfect, the mood is perfect. Oh, sure, the Music gets impossibly better. The girls get just a little younger. (But then, so do us girl-watchers!) AND the feeling you come away with gets...to be your nicest habit! Just once, we weren't going to name Names. Because places like The Danish Inn, you GOTTA send an occasional valentine.

AND THEN THEREZA One Man Riot named Ronny Coden! And a moonshot of a place called the far-out COLONIAL LOUNGE, at 19170 Farmington Rd., in Livonia, just north of 7 Mile. Bring a shoehorn, because there is a big squeeze on for about a hundred extra parking places every night, when the youngsters make the scene! The Colonial and Ron Coden turn out to be a fountain of youth for everyone else, too. It's that "something else" you write and ask us for. N-O-T quiet. N-O-T hushed. N-O-T what young uetia mean, either! DON'T come to The Colonial if you're in the mood for a wait! Ron Can be soft and swinging, but he's more often making sounds ranging from Donald Duck to a riot, or giving with something so mellow-good that feet keep time under every table! This fella's a repeat because he keeps bringing 'em in, and if it's a WILD variety of listening you're after, you'll be after runnin' over there every nite this week to hear him before he moves along! Got those directions?? OKAY, then, I'll dash across the street and get that extra parking space ready!

OF AN EVENING, on a very particular evening...where WOULD you take her except up to the CARRIAGE HILL? It's the quietly elegant place almost gone from today's picture, except in the coast Hotels. It's that BIG Band sound you remember. The DON MCKENZIE group, headed by the gifted Recording Star whose name is the password to all the fine Clubs in the Country. Don heads up as lead Vocalist and Pianist, with other greats such as Laurence Carroll, MoTown Recording Drummer and Leo Rea, bass Guitarist, long-time Songwriter, and the outstanding man in a whole lotta Jam Sessions. These fellows are there for listening and dancing to, Monday through Sat'd'y from 6 p.m., but if it's a weekend you're hoping for, you MUST call 274-2534 to reserve a table for more than two. There IS no other way in! People who stand waiting, lining the walls, sitting along the gigantic hearth, napkin-on-knee, testify to this by their presence. A never phenomenon, now, is the young lady who brings the Girls back next day at lunchtime, because there's NO other way to show them how distinctive the dining is, either! Lunches, from 11:30, on, offer you fare "...from the Ocean", Rueben Grills, things like shaved beef au jus, a toss-it-yourself Salad Bar with the guarantee that it'll come out better every time...and even an Expert named Tom Doyle, who'll be around if you want some help with your tossing! Top all that with Cheese Cake and Strawberries...and if you'd justason NOT mention my name at Weight Watchers...you'll remember me in your prayers, anytasy, how! Order our Carriage, Baby! We're on our way to 27200 Cherry Hill, in Dearborn Heights!

QUESTION: IF FAGUY'S in SOCIAL SECURITY, does that mean he's Socially Secure?? It MUST. Because Joe Mayo, Field Representative Extraordinaire, feels secure about going to all the best places. And HE's the Guy who told me it was a nice ride and a fun drop-in, and started me going out to the new CONTINENTAL BAR & RESTAURANT, at 49110 Grand River at 12 MI. Rd., in Novi-Wixom. But Uncle Joe, don't get my Social Security check ready yet, okay? Because Don & Betty Burleigh got me real comfortable, and fed me beautifully...and THEN they turned on the Spotlight! W-O-W! Her name is "Little Marty"...and her sound is right upstairs! And she's sooo pretty to look at and listen to...that I get socially secure right in my chair...and don't wanna ever leave it! Oh, yeh! She starts at 9 on Saturday...and at 8 on Sunday. And she gets her audience started, too, baby! If you're taking the Family...make it Sunday Dinner. If it's just you two and you wanna feel happy...make it a weekend evening. And if it's after bowling but too early to go home...relax an hour ANY time...and come home feeling Socially Secure.

THERE WAS THIS pretty Girl named Linda making with the Coffeepot...and there was this handsome Officer named Reynolds maintaining the peace simply by his presence...and there was this summer day outside...and this s-y-m-m-e-r-y good Salad plate with a whole variety of Salads and Meats on the little "Special of the day" card...and there was EVEN Phyllis Bednerek, who left her Caseville Marina to dine at the establishment of a great Cook...AND Boater named Vic Raviolo...so I thought: "Everyone else is...and inside I went! I sed, "Is this VICTOR? I mean Victor's at 34410 Ford Rd.? In Westland?" And there, on a low chair, sat Wilma Schultz! "Sitdown!" she sez. "I already have a sore back...and I don't wanna getta pain in the neck!" I woulda had Reynolds write her a ticket...but she was parked so pretty. And SHE had one of those Salad Plates, too. And so did Phyllis Bednerek. Yeh, Reynolds too. So I thought, "Everyone else is..." Of course, that's what I always think about Victor's when I'm out Westland way. So I hadda Salad. And I left one for you. And you'll know immediately why everyone else is...

NOW PLAYING TO A packed room at BEAU-J'S LOUNGE, on Inkster at Schoolcraft (in Redford), just across from DRC, are a couple good buddies aptly monickered "THE FRIENDS"...who are making friends with Standing Room Only! In fact we know a TRUE story about two couples who waited 45 minutes to be told there was still nothing available, and left...only to return the next night and wait even longer, finally gaining a table...because they couldn't forget the sound!! Club Owner Bob Markley, who not only knows a Winner when he has one...but knows how to make it a Champion, was thought to be playing a long shot when he came into this spot. But his know-how keeps it up on top in a highly competitive race, and one of the things that earns him the Winners circle every time around is a gesture like raising these guys a full C above their Contract as soon as he looked around at the happy faces. He works the same winning combinations with the Menus, too. Like riding with the Winners There's an air of BIG things happening...And getting bigger, at Beau-J's Lounge!

YOU'VE HEARD the name Walter Sarkovich at our table many times...and heard how Wally sets the table at his famous VLADIMIR'S, at 28125 Grand River, at 8 Mile. But this last weekend, if you knew anyone who was getting married, you might've heard the name Vladimir's repeatedly! There were only FOUR Weddings getting going when we stopped in! Sharon Shea was about to become Mrs. Donald Humbarger. Miss Pamela Gearhart was about to wed a young man not unknown around the Farmington Fire Dept...named Timothy Clark. (O! Cap just stood by to mind the Siren!). Sharon L. Herrick wed Charles H. Stenils...and a very, very beautiful young lady named Miss Lazarevich was claimed by Daniel Hupfnagen! What struck me was that not ONE iota of Service was lacking at Vladimir's. There was MORE than ample parking for all. Nothing grew cold, or warm...that shouldn't have at the tables. Everything was deftly and beautifully managed. The expertise worked in coordination with each separate Ceremony in each vast Hall, so that the beauty and tenderness was absolutely NOT disturbed...rather, enhanced. Hey, if you're planning something SUPER...call 477-8050 and ask for a tour of the premises! Whether it's a small Bowling Banquet or a Convention...you'll be glad you remembered that I toldja so!

During Ford's conference

Local city, township officials visit capital

Washington, D.C. — More than 60 local officials representing cities and townships in Michigan's 15th Congressional District participated last week in Congressman William D. Ford's eighth annual Municipal Officials Conference in Washington, D.C.

In a busy three-day schedule, the officials met with representatives of federal agencies and Congressional committees; listened to the House of Representatives debate a revenue-sharing bill, and obtained first-hand information of their individual applications for federal aid.

Ford has scheduled Washington conferences for his municipal and school officials each year since his election to Congress in 1964. This year's school conference is scheduled for October.

The conference opened Thursday morning with a welcome by Congressman Ford and a talk by the speaker of the House of Representatives, Congressman Carl Albert, (D-Oklahoma).

The morning session included a detailed session on the federal water and sewer facilities construction in the Water Pollution Act, and reorganization of federal departments dealing with federal municipal programs to simplify the requirements for local application.

"In short, we wanted to tell the local officials how to cut through state and federal 'red tape' to secure financial support for local and community projects," Ford said.

In view of the great interest in revenue sharing, a scheduled luncheon speech was cancelled, and during the lunch hour the delegates went to the House galleries and watched part of the debate on the bill.

The House remained in session throughout the day and evening, and finally adjourned at 11 p.m. after approving the bill by a vote of 274-122. The legislation, which still needs Senate approval, would provide some $29.5 billion to state and local governments over the next five years.

On Friday and Saturday, the delegates heard speakers discuss federal programs for drug abuse, park development and grants for land and water conservation, and attended seminars on individual community programs.

"This year's conference was one of the most successful we have held," Ford said. "I was particularly impressed with the widespread interest in cooperation among communities on joint problems such as drug abuse, waste disposal and sewage treatment."

In addition to Washington-based officials, Congressman Ford said, regional representatives of several federal agencies came to Washington for the conference. They stressed ways that their offices can be of help in processing applications for Federal aid, and securing early consideration and approval.

NEW PRECINCT BOUNDARIES— Reapportionment of Michigan's legislative districts has created the new 22nd District which includes a portion of the City of Romulus. The reapportionment has necessitated a split of four Romulus voting precincts. The precincts involved in the boundary changes are the first, fifth, seventh and 11th precincts. That portion of Romulus included in the 22nd District is shown in the above map. The split of the other precincts and their new boundaries, which involved some 4,000 to 5,000 residents, are also shown. The 22nd District also includes the communities of Ypsilanti, Ypsilanti Township, Belleville and Van Buren Township.

Local units to gain in revenue sharing

Cities and townships in the 13th Senatorial District will gain substantially in a $240-million "revenue sharing" bill approved by the Michigan Senate last Thursday.

The bill, designed to provide state monies to the general fund for local governments, was supported by Sen. William Faust.

"Every municipality in my district gains additional funds under this legislation," Faust said, as he supported a resolution to release the multi-million dollar bill from the Municipalities Committee. Faust is vice-chairman of that committee.

Romulus will receive $20 for every person, or a total of $457,580. The city has a population of 22,879 and received $18.73 last year.

Belleville, with a population of 2,406, will receive $18.90 per person, or a total of $45,473.40. Last year the city received $18.10 per person.

Under the bill, Canton Township will receive $18.44 per person. Huron Township $19.95 per person; and Van Buren Township $18.57 per person.

The bill, already approved in the House, provides $21.18 for every person in the city of Westland. Using 1970 census figures of 86,749, Westland will receive $1,837,343.82. Last year Westland received $18.85 for every person.

Garden City will receive $21.57 for each person, or a total of $903,006.48. Last year the city received $20.42 per person.

The City of Wayne will receive $22.11 per person. The City has a population of 21,054 and thus shall receive a total of $465,503.94. In the last budget year, the city received $22.11 per person.

Inkster will realize $22.50 per person. It has a population of 38,595, and thus shall have a total of $872,247 in the new budget year. Last year the City received $22.31 per person.

Board of review dates changed

An ordinance amending the date for the annual meeting of the Romulus Board of Review has been approved by the Romulus City Council.

The present ordinance requires that the board of review convene on the third Monday in March of each year to hear complaints of persons aggrieved by the tax assessment.

Assessor Harold L. Reiner reported to the city council that such meeting time imposes an undue hardship upon the assessor's office to conduct the board of review and complete the assessment roll before the first Monday in April as required by state law.

The city council established the new date for the first meeting of the board of review as the first Tuesday following the first Monday in March of each year to review the tax assessment and the second meeting of the board for the second Monday in March of each year to hear objections to applications for correction of the tax assessment.

The city council made the change in order to promote a more efficient system of tax assessment within the city and to alleviate the congestion created by the present system of completing the tax assessment roll.

The new ordinance amendment is effective 30 days after publication.

Back-yard swim lessons scheduled

A new back-yard swimming program has been initiated in Romulus by the Western Wayne County YWCA.

Classes for tots - and - moms and beginning swimmers meet daily in the back-yard pool of Jack Bath, who lives at 3215 Bruce St., Romulus, in the city's northeast section.

an experienced Senior Red Cross Life Saving instructor. Persons wishing to volunteer the use of their pool to initiate instructional programs in other areas may contact Mrs. Suessine.

Mobile park change eyed

Parkins, Rogers & Associates, Inc. of Detroit, planning consultants for Van Buren Township, have been requested by the township planning commission to prepare an amendment in the Mobile Park Ordinance.

The amendment, if approved, would allow storm and screen enclosures to be put up in mobile home parks as long as there is no heat in them.

Huron senior girl wins scholarship

Miss Carolyn Wright of 22450 Fox Croft, Woodhaven, member of this year's graduation class at Huron Senior High School in New Boston, has received a $150 scholarship award.

The scholarship award was presented June 14 by Mrs. June Nagy, president of the Huron Township Jaycee Auxiliary. Miss Wright also was presented with a charm and certificate in honor of the occasion. This is the fourth year that the auxiliary has awarded a Huron High School girl student a scholarship.

Funds to finance the scholarship award were received through Christmas movie dates held during the year and a Christmas bazaar.

IN APPRECIATION — Three outgoing officials of the Belleville Area Lions Club were presented with appreciation plaques for services rendered to the local Lions' Club.

The Wayne-Westland Schools Senior Citizen Club elected William R. Davidson as its Senior Citizen of 1972 by a unanimous vote.

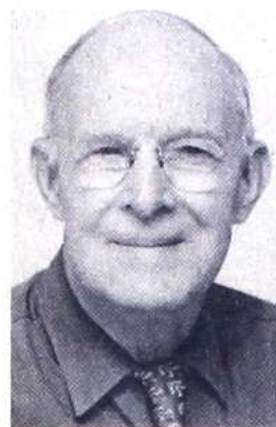

An active 73-year-old, Davidson was the club's first president in 1970-71 and now serves as its treasurer. In addition, he is serving his second term as president of the Westland senior citizen's Happy Hour Club and is second vice president of still another older organization, the Romulus Senior Citizens Club.

Born and raised on a Kentucky farm, Davidson now resides in Westland.

A volunteer entertainer at the Killingbeck Nursing Home in Westland, he also collects colorful used cards and takes them to the seniors to make attractive gifts for retarded children.

The busy senior works as a volunteer for the Helping Hand Society and is active in the collection and distribution of used clothing and furniture for that agency.

A member of the Mayor's Advisory Council for Senior Citizens of Westland, Davidson served as council vice president in 1971 and was appointed as a delegate to the

WILLIAM R. DAVIDSON

White House Conference on Aging held in Inkster.

He spends much of his time buying groceries for seniors, taking them to the doctor, the unemployment bureau and elsewhere, and doing minor repairs.

He was chairman of the Westland senior's Spring Festival committee and arranged for the club's arts and crafts display.

Extremely involved in the Wayne-Westland Community Schools Senior Citizens Club, Davidson regularly brings four or five persons to all its activities.

He baked a pie for the club's pie-baking contest, was the male star for the senior's version of the Dating Game and modeled in their talent and fashion show.

One of the club members instrumental in establishing a pilot bicycle club, Davidson's voice was that heard on a television report of the bicycle creation.

Men's club needs painters

The Men's Club at St. Anthony's Catholic Church, 409 W. Columbia Ave., Belleville, has undertaken the job of painting the parish school.

An invitation has been extended to all the fathers of the parish to participate in the painting project. Accepted are retirees, young men and high school students.

A 25-cent entry fee will be collected on the day of the hike, says Mrs. Stolmar. Each participant is to bring a sack lunch and bathing togs.

Those serving on the planning committee for the hike are Lynn Petre, Adelle Austin, Louise Kerr, Chris Lippstreu, Cindy Gonzales and Sue Carroll.

BELETED CAMPAIGN POSTERS—Various areas in the City of Romulus still display school election campaign posters despite the fact the annual school election in Romulus was held June 12. The responsibility for removing such signs rests with the candidates seeking office, one city official reported. Two of the electioneering posters were found at Goddard Road and Grover Street and on Goddard Road at the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad crossing. Other signs were still displayed in the area of the school district's administration building, located on Grant Road.

New Boston man jailed for kidnaping

Two area men are being held in a Bowling Green, O., jail in lieu of $20,000 bond on kidnaping charges in connection with the abduction of an Ohio man last week.

Hassell Lester, 27, of 19232 Huron River Dr., New Boston, and Fred John Dobozy, 27, of 27042 Arsenal Rd., Flat Rock, have been charged by the Wood County sheriff's office with robbery, abduction for the purpose of extortion and public intoxication.

The charges stem from the alleged kidnaping of Frederick A. Smith of Bowling Green last Wednesday afternoon.

Sheriff's deputies said Smith picked the men up on the I-75 freeway near Perrysburg on his way home from work, and was then threatened with a broken beer bottle and told to drive south of Toledo.

Smith, who was not injured, told deputies he managed to escape when he slowed his car for a truck making a turn, jumped out and ran to another vehicle and was driven to a gas station where he then called police.

The car carrying Lester and Dobozy ran off the road and crashed into a building, deputies said. The men were arrested when they tried to escape on foot.

Wayne County General task force study to cost $30,000

A total of $30,000 will be spent to finance the Wayne County General Hospital Task Force, which has been formed to determine how the facility can best be utilized.

A Washington, D.C. firm — Linton, Miels, and Coston Inc.—has estimated what amount will be needed to finance the study to be done by a six-man task force recently appointed by three county boards.

The University of Michigan has given $10,000 toward the cost of the study, while $10,000 more has been pledged through a WCGH fund.

Dr. Ramon R. Joseph, president of the medical staff at WCGH, is among the six appointed to serve on the special task force. He was appointed by the county Board of Institutions, along with Dr.

Thomas J. Herrmann, assistant dean of the medical school at U-M.

Named by the Board of Commissioners were Commissioner Paul Silver (D-11th Dist.) and James P. Curran, project director of the Detroit-Wayne County Health Department Steering Committee, who has been appointed task force chairman. The Board of Auditors has named Leonard D. Proctor, board chairman, and Edward Bobowski, county budget director, as its representatives.

According to a list drawn up to define the purposes of the task force, the major issue of concern to the group will be who would be eligible to apply for staffing privileges and the resulting implications from that decision.

The hospital currently is closed to outside doctors, a point which has caused a great deal of controversy among local doctors who feel they should be allowed to practice at and admit their patients to WCGH.

Also to be studied by the force will be the fiscal implications of admitting private patients, how present services would be affected by such a policy change, and how the present affiliation agreements with U-M and Wayne State University would be affected by open staffing.

Also to be examined by the task force are such areas as total hospital costs and the revenue sources from which they are obtained, how policy and management decisions are made and implemented, how medical education is provided, current bed utilization and why the occupancy rate is at the present low level, and what services patients are receiving and what needs are unmet.

The task force will be making recommendations for medical staffing, hospital and medical school relationships, hospital financing, hospital governance and organization of delivery of hospital services.

According to McCartney, the task force also will examine the hospital's governing apparatus.

"We feel there are some real shortcomings in the administration," 25th District county commissioner James R. McCartney said, indicating the board felt the "best" management techniques are not being applied.

No date has been set for completion of the task force report.

THINK SMALL.

Think Small is our way of reminding you to drive carefully in the next several months when our children will be outside playing. By "Thinking Small", you will help insure the fact that they will grow up safe and happy.

After all, you were a child yourself not so long ago. Remember those carefree days when you played ball and rode your bike? Well today, it's difficult to enjoy all those youthful pleasures while living in fear that some reckless driver is going to end your life before it really begins!

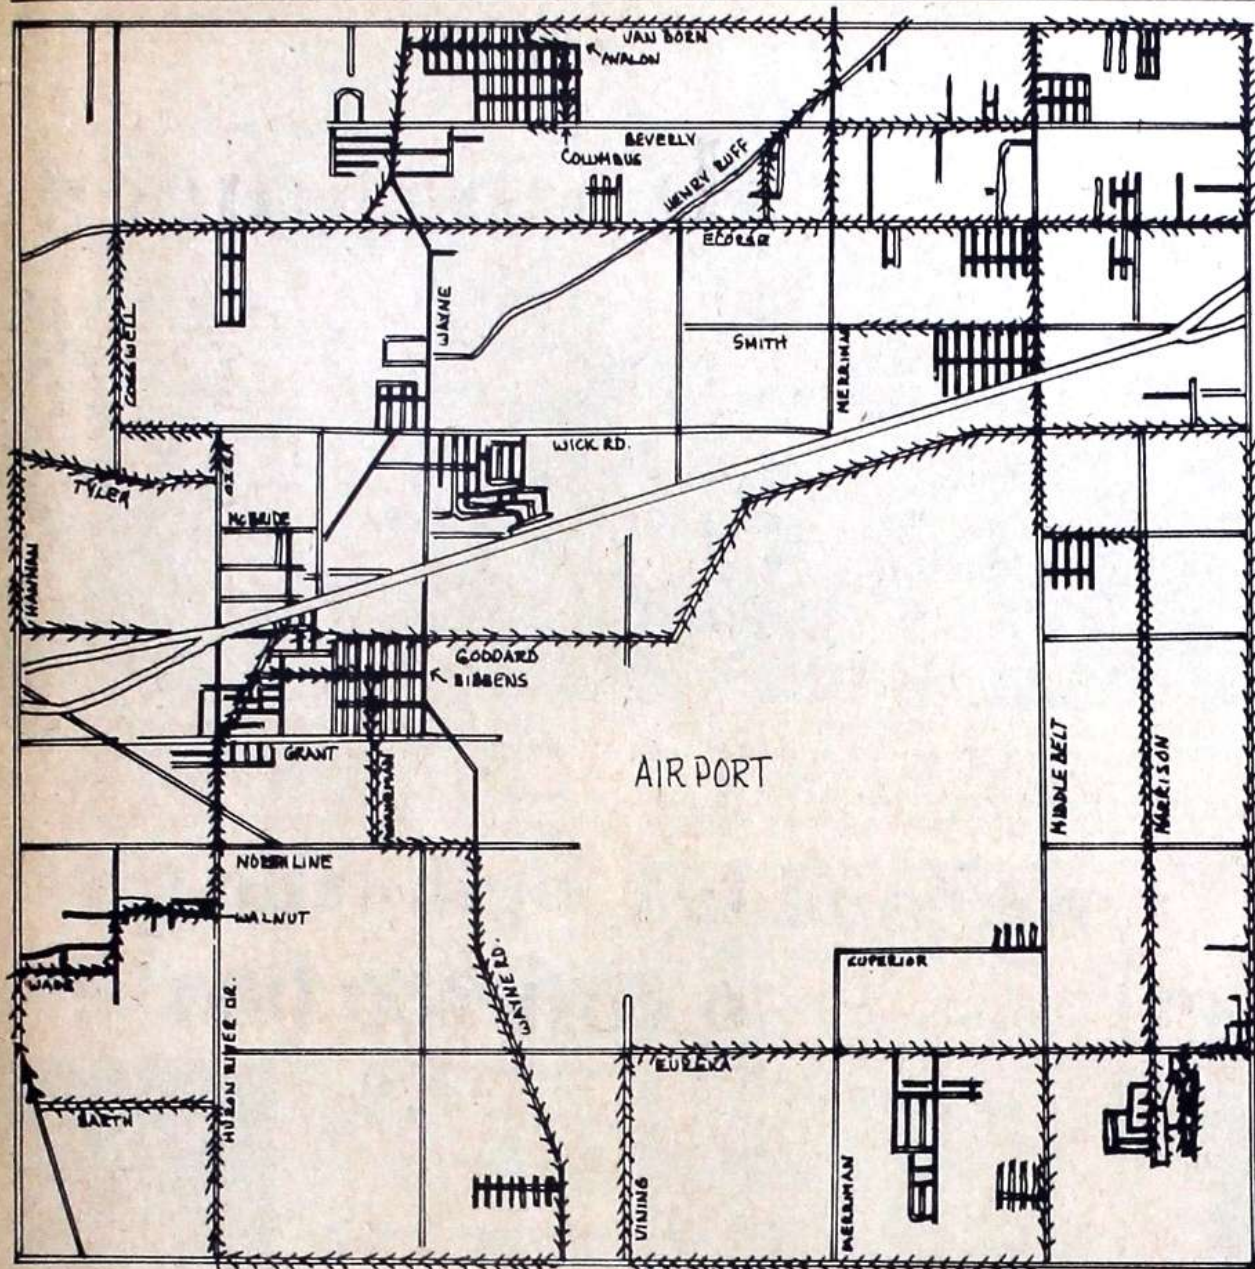

Stop and think. As a driver you hold the power of life and death every time you get behind the wheel. In the next several months you will have the opportunity to exercise your power as thousands of children are on vacation, playing in the streets.

All you have to do to insure their safety is drive each street as if it were "your own".

Be a big person . . . Think Small.

PLEASE DRIVE CAREFULLY. PLEASE.

Veterans bill includes Mahalak proposals

Gov. William G. Milliken has requested the Michigan legislature for fast approval of a $232 million bond issue to provide mustering-out bonuses to Vietnam military veterans.

The governor said the proposal should be approved and put on the Nov. 7 general election ballot before Friday when the legislature is expected to adjourn for the summer.

Basic benefits of the program, if approved by voters, would apply to veterans of service between Jan. 1, 1961 and Dec. 31, 1973. Gov. Milliken said there was no assumption the Vietnam war would end by that date, "but we thought there had to be some cutoff point."

The bonus phase of the program is embraced in a House Bill sponsored by State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak (D-38th District).

Both the educational benefits of the program and the bonus phase are embraced in a substitute bill awaiting Senate approval.

Proposed GI grants include: A one-shot $500 award to veterans with Vietnam service who do not qualify or apply for educational benefits. Military men not assigned specifically to Vietnam area duty would not be eligible.

Educational subsidies would be available to all veterans, regardless of where they served during the 12-year period. Tuition grants of $500 a year for as long as four years would be made available.

In addition, children of U.S. Vietnam prisoners of war or men lost in action would be able to collect $2,000 a year for four years of schooling.

Business loans of as much as $1,000 without interest would be available for qualifying veterans.

Teachers' package studied

The sixth and final preliminary session of the negotiating team of the Van Buren Education Association (VBEA) and representatives for the Van Buren Board of Education on VBEA's new contract requests has been completed.

The total package embracing the VBEA's requests and recommendations toward a new teaching contract for the 1972-73 school year is under study of the school board prior to further negotiating sessions.

The present one-year master agreement, covering the employment of the school district's teaching personnel, will expire on Aug. 31 of this year, according to Raymond Kohr, assistant superintendent of curriculum and instruction.

Degrees earned

Two area students have been awarded degrees by Ferris State College at the college's June 11 commencement exercises.

Ronald J. Sirarski of 8512 Middlebelt Rd., Romulus, received a B.S. degree in business administration, and David A. Teets of 18625 Hannan Rd., New Boston, received a certificate in welding.

HCMA parks featured in Motor News story

The Ypsilanti area's Lower Huron and Willow Metropolitan Parks, the seven other parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority and the wide variety of attractions they offer are featured in the June Motor News.

The article tells Auto Club's million readers - members how this unique and very popular park system enables the people of five Southeast Michigan counties to enjoy family recreation amid natural outdoor settings of lakes and trees.

The Huron-Clinton Metro parks are located in these counties: Wayne, Oakland, Washtenaw, Livingston and Macomb.

More than four million residents of Southeast Michigan own these public playgrounds, the article relates. They offer facilities for boating and fishing, swimming in lakes and pools, golf, tennis, shuffleboard, nature trails and centers, marinas and boat launching sites and many picnic areas near the water.

Since 1940, when the voters of the five counties approved a metropolitan district to provide regional recreation facilities, the authority has acquired 17,875 acres, with 12,660 acres in public use, a 1,711-acre site now under development and the rest held for future expansion.

The nine parks stretch in a loop from Lake St. Clair to near Lake Erie, says the article, with a 10th facility now under preliminary development and not yet open.

Motor News points out that Lower Huron Metropolitan Park, 1,200 acres in Wayne County near Belleville, is off I-94 at the Haggerty Road exit. Groves of tall trees contrast with deep ravines, providing an ideal atmosphere for family outings.

This park features swimming, a snack bar, golf on an 18-hole course, a "tot lot" for little ones and a nature center. Among the other parks cited in the article are:

—Willow Metropark, a 1,500-acre site still under development, on the Huron River in western Wayne County. This park, opened in 1970, offers only limited facilities.

—Kensington, southeast of Brighton, which falls mostly within Oakland County, with its western tip in Livingston County. This park offers 4,500 acres of hilly countryside surrounding 1,200 acre Kent Lake.

There is excellent swimming and fishing, a boat rental and an 18-hole golf course. Canada geese, which welcome handouts from visitors, are an attraction at the park's Kingfisher Lagoon and each winter transforms the area into a wonderland for sledding, tobogganing and skating.

CHURCH CONVENTION PARTICIPANTS — Church leaders and missionaries from various parts of the United States and overseas attended Saturday's national Lutheran convention in Westland. They included (from left) Mrs. Dean Myers, national president, Lutheran Women's Missionary Society; Mrs. Donald Holhueter, convention co-chairman; pastor Rev. G. L. Press, of the St. John's Lutheran Church; Mrs. Frederick Doletzky, convention chairman and Rev. Robert Baer of St. John's.

Swing equipment stolen from park

The theft of several pieces of recreational equipment from Kenney Park, located at Goddard Road and Five Points in the City of Romulus, has been reported by the Romulus Jaycees and the Romulus Parks and Recreation Department.

Missing from the park are four swinging devices in the shape of playground horses, which are used by youngsters as a swing seat.

The Jaycees have replaced the missing articles and repaired several parts of the mis-used playground equipment.

The Jaycees ask the public's assistance in observing the area and to report any knowledge of such thefts. Thomas Taylor, Jaycee recreation chairman, reported that all of the equipment has been used. No more is available to replace future thefts if they occur.

This equipment, originally purchased by the old Romulus Township government several years ago, was rescued from the city's DPW yard and installed by the Jaycees in August of last year.

Parks and Recreation Director Frank J. Tolish, who has advised the city's insurance company of the thefts, is pursuing the replacement of at least part of the equipment.

Belleville council lauds city attorney

The Belleville City Council has expressed its thanks and appreciation to City Attorney B. Ward Smith for his "outstanding job" on representing the mayor and Belleville citizens in a lawsuit that halted the construction of the Detroit's $16 million multi-sports stadium.

Circuit Court Judge Blair Moody Jr., who issued the injunction, was upheld two weeks ago by the Michigan Supreme Court.

Mayor Royce E. Smith and two Grosse Pointe Woods investment counselors initiated a Wayne County Circuit Court suit that resulted in an injunction permanently restraining the stadium promoters — Wayne County Judge Moody held that the bond issue, backed by the full faith and credit of Wayne County to guarantee payment of the bonds, was unconstitutional in that public funds (county taxes) would be used to finance a private business (the Detroit Tigers).

Kosin enters top stock car circuit

By JIM FREER

After six years as a race car owner Chet Kosin feels that he is on the verge of "becoming competitive" in the National Association of Stock Car Auto Racing's (NASCAR) Grand National division.

Kosin, a Belleville resident since 1953 and the proprietor of Kosin's Auto Parts in Inkster, owns a 1971 Mercury which races on the NASCAR Grand National circuit under the sponsorship of his company.

Dave Marcis drove the car in the recent Motor State 400 at Michigan International Speedway and finished 30th in a field of 40. The car, which was running about 10 miles per hour slower than the leaders, dropped out of the race after 90 laps because of mechanical difficulty and earned $735 for its owners.

The paycheck will do little to cover the expenses which have been put into the car but Kosin and James "Hammer" Mason, the car's builder and chief mechanic, plan on being back on the track within the next month.

Kosin and Mason have been partners since 1966.

"I got into racing when I took over the sponsorship of a '63 Ford which Hammer was racing," said Kosin. "We took it down to Daytona Beach, Florida that first year and with Curtis Turner driving we won the Permatex 300."

For the next four years Kosin and Mason raced their car in only one race — the Permatex 300. Turner, one of the all-time greats in stock car racing, was the driver and he rewarded his backers with two third place finishes and two fifths.

These good showings on NASCAR's Grand American circuit made the two partners want to test their luck in stock car racing's big league — the NASCAR Grand National division.

Last summer Kosin and Mason plunked down $13,800 and purchased a 1969 Mercury

Enterprise-Roman Sports

Wednesday, June 28, 1972 Page B-1

from Holman and Moody, one of the top builders in NASCAR. The package they bought came complete with body, frame, and tires, but it lacked the engine and other running gear.

Mason, who is the manager of Dearborn Steel Turbine, put in the motor with the help of three employees who serve with him as the car's pit crew. The crew members work part-time on the car and they get paid only if the car earns money.

They then prepared to run in last August's Yankee 400 at MIS, but they encountered nothing but difficulty.

"We had Lee Roy Yarbrough lined up to drive, but he backed out at the last minute," recalled Kosin. "Then we really hit bottom when the car failed to pass the NASCAR inspection test."

But after some work the car was able to get past the inspectors and Kosin took it to 500-mile races in Talladega, Ala., Charlotte, Rockingham, N.C., and Bryan Tex.

The Inkster car qualified at Charlotte, where it finished 37th with Cale Yarborough as the driver, and at Bryan, where Britain's Jackie Oliver had it as high as fifth place before it broke down at the 300-mile mark.

Following the Texas race Kosin and Mason began to get the car ready for the 1972 season.

"We had to put an entire new body on the car," said Kosin. "NASCAR rules say that you can't have a body more than two years old on a Grand National car, so we put a '71 Mercury body over the engine."

"We also did other work on it, but we ran into some problems and we weren't able to get it ready for the Daytona 500 in February, as we had planned. So we concentrated on the Motor State 400 instead."

They hired Marcis, an old friend of Mason's who is one of the top independent drivers on the NASCAR circuit, to drive and they placed 36th in the Motor State 400 qualifying.

Mason has fixed the broken oil line which forced his car to drop out of the recent MIS race, and the machine has undergone further repairs in a garage at Dearborn Steel Turbine.

Kosin is now pointing for the Firecracker 400 at Daytona on the 4th of July, and he also plans to enter other races later in the season.

The Inkster car owner feels that he has "passed NASCAR's initiation" and will find things easier on the circuit in the future.

"NASCAR is comprised mostly of Southerners and they're reluctant to accept newcomers," explains Kosin. "But now that we've run a few races and they've gotten to know us we should have a better shot at things. I think we'll be able to keep getting good drivers and I think we can now battle anyone except the big boys if we don't run into problems."

The "big boys" whom Kosin refers to are Richard Petty, Bobby Allison, David Pearson, and the other Southern drivers who dominate the NASCAR tracks.

"Those five or six top drivers are in a class by themselves," says Kosin. "They have more money behind them and get top equipment and help from the auto companies and other suppliers. I know we can't

'The Bold Ones'

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

There was little doubt in anyone's mind that Belleville's Jon Cross would have shattered scores of track records in the distances in his senior year.

But fate played a "dirty trick" on the 18-year-old senior who recently graduated — Cross suffered a fracture in his right foot and after competing in only three meets last season was unable to complete his final year.

Early in the year Cross covered the 2-mile in 9:19 and when you figure that Detroit Cooley great, Nick Ellis ran a 9:10.7, one doesn't have to take out a computer to see that if Cross had competed in his senior year, he would have been a formidable opponent.

But it wasn't to be —

However, Jon did receive good news this week. He was granted a "full ride" athletic scholarship to the University of Michigan where he has decided to continue his athletic career and education.

"The University of Tennessee also awarded him a scholarship," said Mrs. Cross, Jon's mother, "but he preferred to run for one of the state schools."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cross of Belleville, Jon has competed and won All-Area berths in cross country as well as track as a member of Coach Ken Head's team.

JON CROSS

The athlete-scholar, (Jon finished fifth in a class of 468) is considered one of the most promising young distance runners in the state, and many coaches believe he has potential to become a "blue chip" college athlete.

One can only speculate what Cross would have done if he didn't lose his senior year — but I'd bet that he would have given Ellis, who won the state title in the 2-mile, a run for his money if the two had met in the state finals.

Are we going to hold the Western Wayne Golf Meet? Fan, you must be kidding!

Sure we're going to co-sponsor that prestigious meet again. We haven't failed yet, have we?

To answer those numerous requests about the when and where of it, we have had our staff busy hunting down a proper site. And we promise to get back to you golf fans after we talked to the recreation directors in each of the cities involved.

The Western Wayne Golf Meet will definitely be staged, believe me.

In fact, Frank McMurray, of the Canton Parks and Recreation Department, recently dropped in and asked if the township could also compete in the meet.

And I can't see any reason why not.

The meet, which is billed as the City Championships for Garden City, Wayne, Westland and Inkster, is an annual medal play affair and has been going on in these parts, as far as I can remember — and that's a pretty long time.

Golfers who live or work in the mentioned cities may compete, and we have had as much as 110 persons play (1969) for city titles.

So if you have any doubts, forget them — the meet will be staged ... probably in August.

And we're receptive for any questions.

And I really don't know how I get stuck with these bits of news (maybe because I work on Sundays) but petite Carolyn Scarlett insists the following is a sports item therefore it should appear somewhere on the sports pages.

What better place to bury the item than in this column, huh folks?

Anyway Miss Scarlett informs us that there will be a "car rally" (and how a car can rally is beyond us) on Sunday, July 16 at 10 a.m. at Schoolcraft College.

And the rally is open to drivers between the ages of 18 and 25. (That leaves us out.)

Entry fee is $1.50 per car and driver and 50 cents a passenger. Drivers who wish to enter the rally may do so by writing Carolyn Scarlett, 7653 Floral, Westland. Addition? Information may be obtained by telephoning 421-2794.

Marcis, who hails from Wausau, Wisconsin, is one of the few Northerners who has been successful in NASCAR's Grand National circuit. There is a good chance that Marcis may continue to drive for the Kosin-Mason team in what would be a unique all Northern entry.

The Michigan team has departed for Daytona and will return after the Firecracker 400 to prepare for the Yankee

"That's one we'll definitely be entered in," said Kosin. "It's right in our backyard, so it won't cost much no matter how we do."

"We think we can start making some money soon," continued the car owner. "But even if we don't we'll still keep our hand in this because it's an awful lot of fun."

Despite the difficulties they have had, Kosin and his partners have enjoyed their experience as the owners of a $25,000 race car. Now they hope that the car can start earning them some profits.

American wastes splits

The American Waste team of Belleville split a pair of games in the Connie Mack Baseball League.

American Waste bowed to Lano of Ann Arbor, 1-0, and then came back to topple Saline, 5-1.

Lano's Rick Stevens pitched a two-hitter as he led his team to its narrow triumph.

Kevin Bara of American Waste allowed only three hits as he took the loss.

Tim Conlin accounted for the game's only run with a homer.

Jerry Cole pitched a five-hitter as he led American Waste to its victory over Saline.

Mark Robson drove in two runs for the Belleville team with a single.

After three weeks of play in the nine-team league American Waste has a 3-3 record.

Schoolcraft plans evening mat clinic

Schoolcraft College has scheduled a special evening clinic for junior and senior high wrestlers to be held the week of July 17.

According to Dr. Larry Meyer, director, the clinic has been scheduled especially for boys unable to attend a daytime wrestling camp at the college the week earlier.

A different coach will serve as clinician each of the four nights, providing two-hour instructional periods. They are Don Behm, coach at East Lansing High and a 1968 Olympic silver medalist;

Duane Wohlfert, coach at Fenton High, current Class B state champions; Bill Johannesen, assistant coach at the University of Michigan and a former Big 10 champion; and Dr. Meyer who coached Schoolcraft to the Michigan junior college championship this year.

The Romulus Jaycee Club has announced that its city directory is in the hands of the printers.

The directory, which is the results of several months of work, contains information designed to acquaint every citizen with the city as a whole. Things such as business and professional services, histories, churches,

Bachelor wins 'patio' crown

A bachelor who may be on his last leg of freedom was crowned Thursday as Southeastern Michigan's best male outdoors cook.

"King of the Patio" is the official title conferred upon Edward A. Nicholas of 851 Oakwood, Dearborn, bar manager of the Chicago Steak House in West Dearborn.

The King of the Patio contest is sponsored annually by Detroit Edison.

Nicholas earned the grand prize — a complete patio ensemble including an electric char-cook console, a serving cart, patio dishes and stainless steel cutlery — along with the title, over nine other finalists in a highly competitive cook-off held in the marketing auditorium of Detroit Edison's downtown Detroit office complex.

His entry in the month-long contest was named "Carpetbag Steak," a uniquely seasoned sirloin with a deft tang of oysters and marinated for "at least one hour."

A man who likes to experiment with fine food preparations, Nicholas said the idea for his winning dish was developed from a recipe of one of his bar patrons. Nicholas refined the patron's recipe and changed the basic ingredient from crabmeat to steak.

Second and third place awards, however, went to married men whose wives in both instances had indicated they expected their husbands to place high in the competition.

Patrick A. Cataldo, central operations manager for Honeywell Computer Institute, received the second place prize for his preparation of "Shellfish Kabobs." He and his wife, Kathleen, live at 4245 Olivia in Royal Oak.

The third place winner was Alvin J. Stefanski, a Ferndale resident and an appliance repairman for the Sears, Roebuck Highland Park warehouse. His wife, Joan, credited with being his inspiration for perfecting his cooking techniques, also is not without honors. She was a finalist in this year's Queen of the Kitchen contest, also sponsored by Detroit Edison. They reside at 753 Withington Avenue. Stefanski's competition entry was called "Best of Everything Kabobs."

The second place prize was an electric rotisserie broiler with patio dishes and cutlery, and the third place prize was an open hearth rotisserie broiler.

Service employees honored

Huron School District service employees and secretaries recently were honored at the third annual Recognition Dinner.

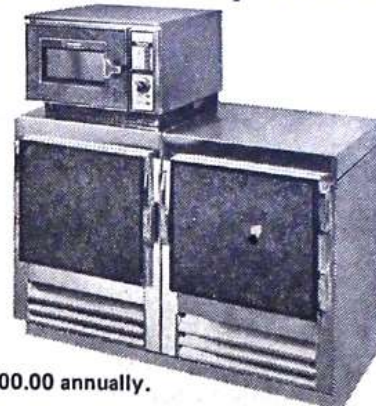

The dinner is given in recognition of the services performed by the aides, bus drivers, cooks, custodians and secretaries.

Mrs. Thelma Curry, supervisor of cooks, served a fried chicken dinner.

Many guests received door prizes donated by the local merchants and interested citizens of the school district.

IMPROVE YOUR HOME

Gain know-how in repair, upkeep of wood furniture

Another season of barn, garage and tag sales is upon us and many amateurs will find little treasures that are bargains.

But many people acquiring antiques and lovely old-fashioned home furnishings aren't really sure how to clean, repair or store their new acquisitions, even though tender, loving care is necessary to keep great cabinetwork and other treasures looking fit for their age.

A timely book, "The Care and Keeping of Antiques" by Epsie Kinard, provides some answers that may help new collectors preserve things of value. Here are some of her suggestions about furniture:

Country pine, poplar and oak, if dry and unsealed, require oil plus rubbing for an oil-rubbed finish that gives it a special look. It provides sheen without shininess.

This may be accomplished with a recipe used by conservators at the Brooklyn Museum to clean and shine furniture: one-third vinegar, one-third turpentine, one-third boiled linseed oil. Apply mixture with a damp cloth, keeping in mind that linseed oil has a darkening effect and should be wiped off within a short time. Many wipings are necessary to make sure there is no residue, unless one wants to darken the piece. Linseed concoctions should always be used sparingly.

Lacquer: To remove a dulling film use a homemade paste of flour and olive oil. Apply it with a soft, clean cloth and rub it on with a circular motion. After wiping off paste, polish it with an old nylon stocking. For a light cleaning of surface soil, a household spot remover may be wiped on and removed instantly.

Damp cloths should not be used on lacquer to clean smudges or fingerprints as a wooden base may swell and reject the lacquered surface. Many lacquered pieces have paper foundations which might cause peeling if water is used.

Mahogany, walnut, rosewood, fruitwood, cherry, maple, butternut pieces can be made lovelier by hand polishing to achieve low-key gleam.

After repairing such a piece with a wax filler, liquid or solid, the furniture should be waxed sparingly with a hard paste wax and rubbed with flannel. A thin coat of wax and much rubbing will do the trick. (Hand rubbing provides the most beautiful patina.)

Marquetry, the little inlaid designs one finds in some old pieces of furniture, can be kept from becoming bone dry by lubricating and cleaning them now and then with a little olive oil. Apply it with a cotton-tipped toothpick or wooden match and rub it with a clean, soft cloth. Do not get the oil on the adjoining wood. After removing surplus oil from the marquetry, dry it and polish it.

Wicker: Antiques made of natural unpainted willow twigs may be cleaned by mixing a tumbler each of peroxide and vinegar into a pail of water and applying it with a sponge. Rinse it with clear water. Let dry thoroughly before using furniture. Clean painted furniture with a sponge and clear water several times a year. Wetting down wicker furniture—painted and unpainted—once a year with a garden hose or putting it under a shower will keep it from drying out.

If wicker is to be repainted, rub the fuzzy fibers that have roughed up with wear with 000 sandpaper, following the lines of the grain, then repaint.

Bamboo or bird's eye maple that has been turned and carved to resemble bamboo has been popular since the 1800s when these pieces began arriving from the Far East. It needs only regular dusting and a light waxing occasionally to deter marks and stains.

Cane should be dampened once a month during the steam heat season to counteract dryness. Let dry before using it. If soil must be removed wipe cane work clean with a sponge dipped in soapy warm water and wrung out nearly dry. Use a mild soap. Rinse with clear water. Let it dry thoroughly.

Car wash to raise baseball funds

There will be a lot of action around Martin's Marathon Gas Station, located on S. Wayne Road at Wick Road Friday when the Women's Auxiliary of the Romulus Baseball Youth Association washes cars to raise funds for the Romulus Little League.

The car wash originally scheduled for last Saturday, was postponed due to an all-day rain.

Washing furniture: Some people frown on using soap and water on fine furniture, others believe it provides a fresh look. Experiment on a small spot. If the spot turns white, do not use the following method of cleaning.

First remove wax with mineral spirits or synthetic turpentine and proceed at full speed to squeeze a sponge almost dry of suds mixture made with good quality soap, and then wash, rinse and dry a small section before going on. Dust should be whisked out of wood carvings with a bristle brush that is covered with a dry washcloth. Let furniture stand 24 hours to dry before rewaxing.

Insect infestation may be spotted when tiny mounds of colored powder are observed under an old piece of furniture. These might be controlled with household insect sprays aimed directly at the holes. Or an exterminator might be consulted.

A good climate for furniture is a relative humidity of around 50 and a temperature of 70 degrees. Moisture should be controlled with humidifier or dehumidifier, if necessary.

Furniture may warp, twist and even crack if it is exposed to too much sunlight.

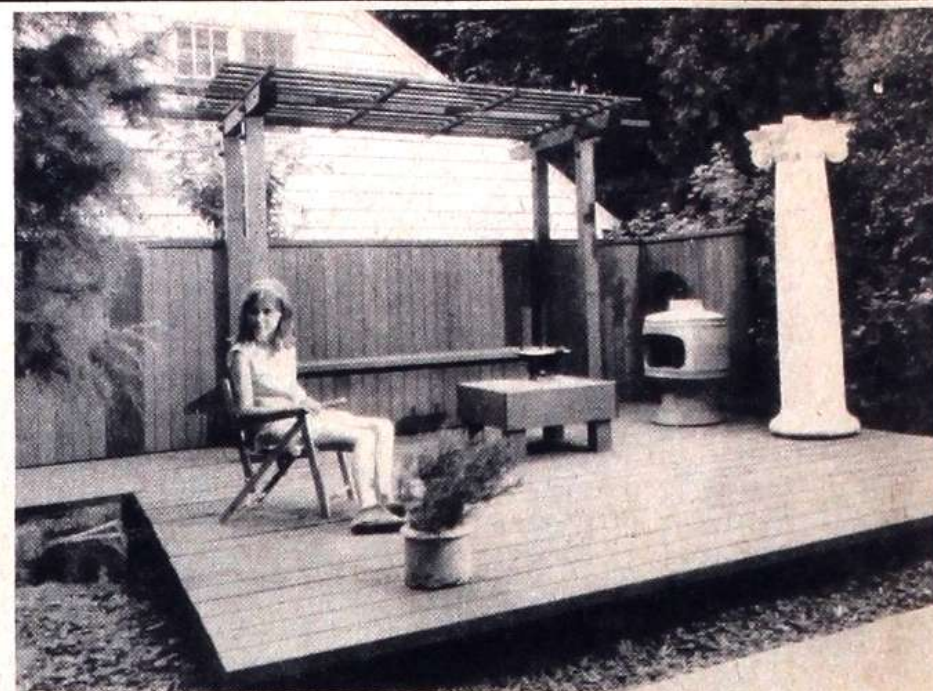

earn money for equipment and other expenses incurred by the baseball teams.

Another bake sale is planned for July 8, while a paper drive will be held on July 15, according to Mrs. Marge McCrory, president of the auxiliary.

This year's goal is $5,000, to be used to acquire a permanent park for Little League use.

Those who will help with the car wash are Mrs. McCrory, Mrs. Virginia Bird, Mrs. Gladys Finch, Mrs. Virginia Britz, Mrs. Jan Walton, Mrs. Dee Hoppe, Mrs. Barbara McMann, Mrs. Eleanor Ryan, Mrs. Marie Wedyke, Mrs. Carol Hein, Mrs. Evelyn Hudson and Mrs. Joanne Steinhart.

The car wash will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

UTILIZING AWKWARD SIDE YARD — A neat deck and fence of red cedar lumber, stained clear, landscapes a narrow side yard and shows off owner-built projects. Built-in bench is shaded by slat roof of charming mini-gazebo. Ceramic fireplace warms chef tending hibachi at low, brick-topped table. Porch pillar from old house is family-salvaged treasure.

Super handyman

Adjustable sawhorse can do many things

By AL CARRELL

Dear Al:

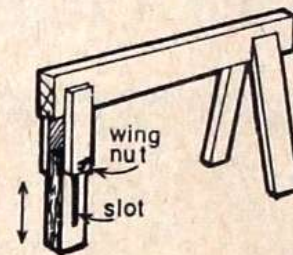

I don't know if my adjustable sawhorse will help all the home handyman readers you have, but I am a carpenter and find much use for it. When I need to use a sawhorse on uneven ground, I drag out my adjustable job and can work on a level horse. One end is just like a regular sawhorse. The other has a board nailed to either side of the crosspiece. A2" x 4" fits between the two boards and can slide up and down to adjust to different heights. When the proper height is reached, a bolt with a wing nut holds it in place. The sliding board has a slot to allow the bolt to go through and let you move it up and down. The bolt goes through holes in the side pieces.

W.W.L.

Dear Al:

Vinyl flooring is great for withstanding most anything... except a three-year-old boy. Our junior handyman gouged several holes in the kitchen floor with some of his tools. I found an easy way to hide the holes. I took wax crayons to match the color of the vinyl.

By holding a lighted match to the crayon, it melted and dripped into the hole. When it set up, I scraped off any that stuck up and made it even with the floor. When waxed over, the patched places can't be found. (Neither can my son's play tools.)

Mrs. R.R.

Dear Al:

Slow gliding drawers can often be remedied by merely removing them and giving all the parts that touch a coat of spray wax. This should include the runners on the bottom of the drawer and the ones underneath in the cabinet. It only takes a few minutes to treat every drawer in your house and garage, and it will make life easier for the whole family.

A SUPER HINT — Putty that has become hardened can often be reworked by the application of heat and linseed oil. A good way to do it is to put the blob of putty into a plastic sandwich bag. Put in a few drops of linseed oil. Now dip the bag into a pan of hot water for a few moments. Take it out and knead the putty while it's still in the bag. This allows you to really work it over without getting it all over your hands.

SHOP TALK — There are lots of caulking jobs up high where you spend more time moving your ladder than actually caulking. Also, some of us get a little jittery every time we have to perform atop a ladder. Now there is a TALL CAULKER GUN that may solve that problem. It uses regular-sized caulking tubes, has a built-in tip cutter, and a scraper on the end. It comes in 40-inch and 60-inch sizes. However, it is too expensive for the one-time user.

Al Carrell welcomes all mail, especially tips from fellow Handymen which he can pass on to readers as space permits. While he cannot answer all individual letters, he will try to nail down your problem in his column whenever possible.

T.Y.

Logs require dry storage

Relaxing by a blazing hearth is a favorite winter pastime made more enjoyable by having a dry, convenient place for storing firewood.

A garage or carport often will have room along a wall for building racks of 2x4-inch western lumber for stacking logs and kindling, placed so air can circulate through the stack.

Another idea is to build a lean-to shelter on the outside wall of the garage. The outside wall of the lean-to has siding to match the garage and the ends are open for access to stacked wood.

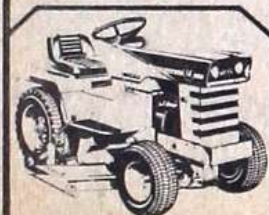

It's important to have a floor of slightly spaced 2x4-inch fir or pine to keep stacked logs away from ground moisture.

If wood must be stored away from the house, a shelter can be built by adding a sloped roof to two 6x6-inch posts spaced six to eight feet apart. Two 2x6-inch stringers attached above ground level support a floor of 2x4's.

SCHOOL GETS FREEDOM DOCUMENTS — Cadillac Elementary School of the Woodhaven School District, located at 19435 Cadillac Dr., Romulus, received a framed set of Freedom Documents from the Brownstown Township office of the Manufacturers National Bank during the branch's

New mail processing system really works

Area mail processing is really working, Postmaster R. J. O'Neil of Belleville announced Monday.

The mail flow through the Belleville post office is much faster and more efficient than under the old system of dispatching, saving many steps and man hours, he said.

Postmaster O'Neil said there have been some questions from customers concerning the new programs such as: Does the mail still leave Belleville at the same time?

The closing time is still 5 p.m. for all classes of mail, O'Neil said. The service windows also close at 5 p.m., although the lock box lobby is open until 6 p.m. But the same day dispatch, our postal customers should mail not later than 5 p.m., he added.

Did Belleville lose its postmark? Not at all. If residents wish their mail to carry Belleville's postmark, bring it to the service counter and request the postal clerks to cancel it there.

Postmaster O'Neil noted Belleville customers mail some 15,000 letters a day. Under the traditional system, it required around eight hours daily to sort and dispatch.

The huge Mark II facer-canceller in the Dearborn mail processing center can process about 30,000 pieces an hour so Belleville's mail requires 30 minutes daily to face and cancel.

The mail is then sorted by ZIP Code by the computerized letter sorting machines at 60 letters per minute. Belleville's mail requires about 250 minutes to sort and send on its destination.

Young people wanted

Sumpter Trustee Noah Folks has announced the township presently is involved in a program of getting local young people to work in the township.

Folks' announcement was made at last week's township board meeting.

He reported the program would be at no cost to the township, explaining that cleaning up the township park could be one of the jobs given to the young people.

Van Buren to cancel some summer rec plans

Due to a lack of early response, some of the recreational programs offered by the Van Buren Recreation Department this summer are being cancelled, William Boyd, director, announced.

The summer activities offered in the new and expanded recreation program include a variety of activities for both adults and children. The summer program started June 2 and will continue until August.

Red Cross first aid are being cancelled for lack of responses. These classes can be rescheduled if enough persons apply, Lloyd said.

Karate has been cancelled as well as a planned baseball clinic.

For further information on other assorted programs available during the summer, interested persons are requested to call Lloyd at the Van Buren township hall, 941-0434 or 647-9169.

He announced many of the recreational classes offered have limited capacities and early registration is urged.

Registration forms can be picked up at the township hall.

Lloyd also announced baby sitting will be provided at the North Junior High School in Belleville for parents desiring to participate in the adult physical Fitness Program being held at the school on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m.

A small fee for baby sitting will be charged.

Parraghi, Mrs. Roberts challenge signatures

Parking plans studied

A Wayne County Circuit Court Suit to set aside the results of a May 16 recall election that ousted Sumpter Township Supervisor Elmer J. Parraghi and Township Treasurer Mrs. Amanda Roberts has been initiated by the two former township officials.

The suit, filed against the present township board, alleges fraud in the procurement of signatures on the recall petitions filed against Parraghi and Mrs. Roberts.

The lawsuit has been assigned to Circuit Court Judge John W. Wise. A hearing on the charges is scheduled for July 7, William A. McKay, township attorney, reports.

Parraghi of 39701 Willis Rd., Sumpter and Mrs. Roberts of 39823 Willis Rd., Sumpter, were charged with "incompetence" in their jobs by the Sumpter Heights Concerned Citizens group that initiated recall petitions against the two.

The suit contends that some of the signatures on the recall petitions were obtained and allegedly certified improperly.

The lateness in filing the lawsuit (after recall) was due to an alleged failure on the part of the then clerk (Clarence J. Hoffman Jr.) to notify them in sufficient time to investigate the signatures and petitions.

Since the recall, Parraghi has filed for election in the 38th Michigan legislative district on the Democratic ticket.

Metro parks to expand

The Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA), a regional park agency serving the citizens of Wayne, Livingston, Macomb, Oakland and Washtenaw counties, has revealed its proposed expansion plans which would continue to provide southeastern Michigan with one of the finest park systems in the country.

The HCMA plan is to develop at least three new metropolitan parks in the five-county area over the next 15 or so years and to lease and rebuild Belle Isle Park (now operated by the city of Detroit) as a Metropolitan Park.

Eugene J. Ellison, chairman of the Authority Board of Commissioners, stated that the aim of the program is to meet the present needs and anticipate the demand for regional recreational facilities that will be needed by the year 1990.

To carry out this proposed expansion program the citizens of the district (composed of the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne) will be asked in the August 8 primary election, to approve a proposal to increase the 1/4 mill property mill property tax — which presently finances the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority — to 1/2 mill to be levied outside the 15-mill tax rate limitation upon the counties.

Williams named to dual posts in two Sumpter departments

Terry Williams, a member of the Sumpter Township Police Department, has been appointed parttime police chief and parttime water department superintendent by the Sumpter Township Board.

Williams will receive an annual salary of $12,000, representing reimbursement of $6,000 for each position.

Williams, who was the department's first police chief when he started the police force in 1954, will serve in his new capacities until the Aug. 8 primary election.

The governor-appointed members of the township board — Supervisor Robert D. Marble, Clerk Mrs. B. Pauline Quinley, Treasurer Bertram J. Bradley and Trustee Noah Folks, who selected Williams — serve as board members only to the primary election. These four recently appointed three other trustees to round out the township board.

The board also approved back pay to Sgt. Jerry Cox, 27, who also has been reinstated to the police department staff. The pay will be retroactive to March 9 when Sgt. Cox was dismissed by a trial board composed of members of the township board recalled on May 16.

Sgt. Cox, a 6 1/2-year veteran of the police force, had charged that his dismissal was due to his union activity and township politics.

He had filed an unfair labor charge against the township board with the Michigan Employee Relations Commission.

The commission last week issued a directive to the township board to reinstate Sgt. Cox to his former position immediately and without prejudice to his seniority or other rights and privileges and reimburse the sergeant with back pay to the time of his dismissal.

Brown criticizes recall in not seeking office

James O. Brown, one of five Sumpter Township Board members removed from office through a recall election last month, has cited reasons why he is not seeking re-election to his former office.

Brown, 36, of 23233 Karr Rd., had been asked by some township residents to become a candidate in the August 8 primary election.

The former trustee, who had two years left in his original term before the recall vote, was critical of the initiators of the recall campaign.

"I have decided not to run for office in this election after much thought on the matter," said Brown. "I served the people of the township to the best of my ability. I yield to the wishes of the people even though I truly believe they were misguided by a few people with ulterior motives," he added.

"The recall that was held against five board members was not because we had not performed our duties and responsibilities, but because these few people wanted to regain control of the township and through some mysterious method, the governor of the State of Michigan was used to place these same people back into the office that we won from them in a fair and open election (November, 1970).

"So it seems today that if you beat them in a fair conducted election, they resort to a recall," said Brown.

"I only hope that the people of Sumpter realize the entire cycle of what has happened to our community.

"My interest in the community has not ceased and that I want to announce that I am available anytime to assist the township, its residents in any way possible," he added.

After the May 16 recall election, Gov. William G.

JAMES O. BROWN

Milliken appointed Robert D. Marble supervisor, Mrs. B. Pauline Quinley as clerk, Betram J. Bradley as treasurer, and Noah Folks trustee.

The four then appointed three other township residents to bring the township board of trustees to full membership.

Athletic purchase requested deferred

The Van Buren Board of Education has deferred formal action on a request for a $15,000 subsidy submitted by the athletic department of the school district for the 1972-73 school year.

The school board needed time for more consideration of the budget to see if the $15,000 request could be absorbed.

Members of the athletic council, headed by school district athletic director Harry Hidenfelter, reported that the athletic department operated principally on gate receipts last year. A subsidy was not approved last year.

The school board needed time for more consideration of the budget to see if the $15,000 request could be absorbed.

Members of the athletic council, headed by school district athletic director Harry Hidenfelter, reported that the athletic department operated principally on gate receipts last year. A subsidy was not approved last year.

The department according to the council, spent $3,000 more than it took in receipts. It finished the year in the black because the year was started with a $4,000 budget carry over from the previous year. The subsidy was requested to replace equipment that should have been replaced last year, as well as for buying new equipment. The request had been reduced from $20,000.

Police auction slated

A public sale of unclaimed and surplus property accumulated over a period of time by the Belleville Police Department in their investigations will be held from 9 a.m. to noon July 7, Mrs. Jean Braumdraher, deputy city clerk, announced.

All articles will be sold to the highest bidder.

Included in the terms for public sale are a television set, 19 bicycles of assorted sizes, bicycle parts, a boat engine, typewriter, tools, four tiers and wheels mounted, a camera, eight fire hydrants, folding chairs and six electric motor assortments. The auction will be held at 100 Davis St.

Medical trailer approved

The Sumpter Family Medical Center, located at 24560 Sumpter Rd., has been granted approval by the township board to use an additional trailer in the center's facilities.

The center is operated as a branch of Oakwood Hospital in Dearborn under the direction of Dr. Everal Wakeman associate director of medical education at the hospital.

The township board approved the request for the additional trailer at its meeting last week. The center occupies a parcel of land located in Sumpter Township Park No. 1.

Gun control laws won't stop murder

To the Editor:

The cartoon on the editorial page of the June 14, Belleville Enterprise, shows me very little intelligence.

The gun control bandwagon is a popular one right at the moment, yet what will be the effect of this gun control that is so highly touted?

In the first place, if our present laws had been enforced, as they were designed to be, the attempted assassination of Gov. George Wallace would not have happened, as the assassin would have been in jail for carrying concealed weapons.

In the event that the general public is forced to give up all of their firearms so that the one hundredth of one per cent cannot legally own the guns they commit crimes with, then what kind of laws are going to be proposed to stop the gun crimes?

Also, what kind of laws are we going to propose to stop criminals from ganging up on people and smashing their way into homes that they know are unarmed, due to these proposed laws.

The little old lady that lives by herself is partly protected by the fact that no one really knows if she has a gun or not. She does not even need to oppose stupid gun control to enjoy this protection. It at present is one of the rights enjoyed by all citizens of this country. Even by Mayor Roman Gribbs.

As to the criminal getting a gun, under the proposed laws the guns would all be at the hunting clubs, with the police, or in possession of the armed forces. Rather than a criminal getting one or two guns by breaking and entering, he could get 30 or 40. That alone would make such armories very attractive to those who would use the gun illegally.

To anyone with only very little knowledge of firearms, it is no great feat to manufacture a simple single shot pistol. With salt-peter, charcoal and sulfur, a powder can be manufactured. The primers can be made from match heads. The barrel can be made from a piece of pipe. With a very crude simple single shot weapon, a policeman can be killed and then our criminal has a very effective .38 revolver and eighteen rounds of ammunition.

At the present time it is illegal to shoot a policeman and take his gun, yet anti-gun laws being proposed at the present time would increase this very crime, not only for the other reasons it is done, but also to obtain the policeman's service revolver.

Those who commit crimes are not going to be disarmed by any law man can devise. Only those who obey the laws will be disarmed with such laws, to the advantage of the criminal.

The state of New York has the most stringent gun laws of any state in the United States, yet the state of New York has as much or more gun crime and all types of crime as any state we have.

When it is considered that the criminal represents less than one tenth of one per cent of the population, then trying to disarm the entire population to prevent crime does not sound very logical.

Another reason given for outlawing guns is that guns have killed more people than have been killed in all of our wars. Well included in this figure are such persons as John Dillinger and Pretty Boy Floyd, also the man killed about two months ago by a woman trying to prevent him from breaking into her home in Detroit.

In a society where no crime existed, we could prevent such killings by just having people not trying to rob and hurt other people.

The anti-gun people also want to prevent crimes of passion, in which very often guns are involved, yet also in most such crimes, drinking is also involved and the top half of a whiskey or beer bottle is far more vicious a weapon than any gun and one that has been resorted to in many such crimes.

In short, those who will kill with a gun are not going to be prevented from killing just because the gun they kill with is illegal to own. Something in my memory seems to remind me that it is also illegal to kill people. The illegally owned guns in the country today are enough to keep the criminals well supplied as long as I expect to live.

This includes the persons who would shoot their spouse because they accept the attentions of another, for we have laws to handle this situation also, if they are properly used.

When this supply of illegally owned guns has been used up, then between our armed forces and police departments, they lose enough guns each year to keep the supply for crime from getting depleted.

When the cold hard facts are considered, if all of the guns in the entire world were destroyed, man would still continue to murder man. For every crime prevented by not having guns, there would be another caused, because the victim had no gun to defend himself.

Among the first humans God put on this earth, Cain slayeth Abel and it would not surprise me to learn that even that murder would be blamed on firearms by the anti-gun lobby.

Although the weapons have changed, murder has not. It is people killing people. No law can change that.

Three board members should be removed

To the editor:

At the June 13 meeting of the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees, and again at the June 19 special meeting, three members of that board did a great disservice to the township and its residents. These three members (Hogan, Payne and Birk) voted no on the motion to put the Belleville Lake question back on the ballot.

It was obvious to anyone attending either meeting that a great many Van Buren citizens want another chance on this issue.

The size of the meeting audience, probably the largest ever at a board meeting, supports this. But in addition, petitions carrying over 700 signatures, requesting that the issue be put back on the ballot, were presented at the June 13 meeting.

Why? Because what is probably the most important question ever put to Van Buren voters — whether to accept the lake and 101-acre park as a gift from Detroit Edison — was defeated at the May 16 election, as the result of a scare sheet, containing lies and distortions, which was distributed by persons with a special interest the night before that election, persons willing to sign only as "concerned citizens".

The board unanimously approved putting the lake question on the May 16 ballot. Now three board members oppose even giving the township citizens a chance to vote again, with the real facts in hand. Why? It has been shown, with facts which can be checked, that the cost to the township of accepting the lake and park will be insignificant compared to the money now being spent by many municipalities to create parks when they realize that progress has eliminated recreation facilities. So the reason cannot be the interest of the township.

Mr. Hogan said he believes "concerned citizens" fact sheet to be essentially correct. This tells me that Mr. Hogan must be either completely misinformed, incredibly stupid, or marching to the same drummer as "concerned citizen". Mrs. Payne said, as she voted no on June 13, that she was answering a "threat" — a promise to actively campaign against the re-election of any township official so uninterested in the township as to oppose the lake, is his right — and mine, too. Mr. Birk only said "no".

If the township refuses the lake and park, private interests will get it — because it is fact that Detroit Edison will divest. Any private acquisition of the lake and park will be to the detriment of the township. At best, we will not get 101 acres of prime recreation (or development) land. At worst, a private owner could destroy the dam and the lake with it — getting even more development land.

Apparently this is the purpose of our three "No" voting board members. This purpose must be in their personal interest — it surely is not in the township interest. It is obviously now for all citizens of Van Buren to unite to remove these people, whose own interest apparently has priority over the township's, from office and replace them with people who represent our interests.

Gillingham files for trustee

Ralph A. Gillingham Sr., 43, of 9864 Hamilton St., Belleville, a Democrat, is seeking election for trustee on the Van Buren Township Board in the Aug. 8 primary. Gillingham, personal manager and acting general manager of Kirby of Washtenaw, Inc., has been with the Kirby company for more than 13 years. He also is a member of the Division Kirby Council.

RALPH A. GILLINGHAM SR.

The candidate and his wife, Barbara, are the parents of five children. Terry, his oldest son is married and residing in Livonia. The other children are DeAnna Jean, 13; Glenn, 8; Patti, 4; and Ralph Jr., 1. Gillingham, in announcing his candidacy, stated that he feels the people in Van Buren Township do not know the things going on because they aren't told.

He would like to see people get that knowledge and also feels that no one should have the right to control whether the people should or should not be able to vote on any major decisions concerning the taxpayers' dollars.

Gillingham stated that this right was taken away from them at the last two meetings of the township board. He is making his first bid for political office.

Dorothy York seeks position

Mrs. Dorothy J. York, 44, of 47215 Ayres, Belleville, is seeking the office of Van Buren Township treasurer on the Democratic ticket in the Aug. 8 primary election. Mrs. York is deputy treasurer.

Mrs. York has worked for the township the last five years all in the treasury office of the township. A deputy registrar and a notary public, she has been chairman of Michigan Week the last four years, including one year as co-chairman.

She attended Monroe Community College for the statewide accounting system. Mrs. York, born in Detroit, has lived in Van Buren Township for the last 20 years. She and her husband, Paul, are the parents of two grown children, Joseph and Mrs. Clea Luebke, both of Van Buren Township.

She has worked on township elections for the last three years, serving as election chairman in the last election.

MRS. DOROTHY J. YORK

She was employed as a cashier in a local supermarket prior to working for the township.

"I feel that I have the experience and knowledge for the position of township treasurer," says Mrs. York. "I believe that I am qualified and feel that I can do a lot of good in the operation of the treasury office."

Member appointed

The Sumpter Township Board of Trustees has appointed the township's interim supervisor, Robert B. Marble, 47, of 46685 Kozma Rd., Sumpter, as the township's representative on the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA).

Marble also was appointed co-administrator of Emergency Employment Act (EEA) funds for the hiring of the township's unemployment program. Former Trustee Virgil W. Humphreys was relieved of this duty by the township board.

Both appointments received the unanimous approval of the board.

The Wayne County Road Commissioners have adopted a resolution changing a section of Denton Road located in Van Buren Township to Old Denton Road.

The commission's action was taken at a meeting held June 22.

The resolution states that Denton Road, running southerly from the I-94 Expressway approximately 0.13 mile and thence easterly approximately 0.16 mile to the intersection of recently named Old Denton Road, is changed to Old Denton Road.

This section of Denton Road, the commission reported, has now been relocated necessitating a change in name in order to avoid confusion.

$1.5 million loan approved by board

The Van Buren Board of Education has approved a resolution authorizing the borrowing of $1.5 million to meet operating expenditures of the school district pending the collection of school property taxes.

The $1.5 million bank loan will be secured by anticipated unpaid school property tax levy for the current tax year.

Seniors' club sets picnic

The Belleville Area Senior Citizens Club will hold a picnic at the Fox Woods area in Lower Huron Metropolitan Park, located near Belleville. The picnic will start at 5 p.m. tomorrow (Thursday).

In the event of cold weather or rain, club members are asked to go to St. Anthony's Parish School in Belleville.

60 jobs offered

Sumpter Township Trustee Noah Folks, who recently reported to the township board the initiation of a Neighborhood Youth Program, has announced that the township has received 60 job offers.

The jobs will be assigned to various township youths as soon as possible, Folks reported.

In announcing the youth employment program, Folks stated that the youth of the township could be used to assist residents, clean up programs and assorted other tasks that may be available.
